I am of sound mind and capable of making this sworn statement. I have personal knowledge of the facts written in this statement. I understand that if I lie in this statement I may be held criminally responsible. This statement is true.

On 2/1/2024, I was present in Tarrant County Family Court #322 waiting for Case # 322-744263-23 to be called. In the preceding case, I heard Judge Jeffrey Kaitcer give a woman instructions and then state "I can't order you to do that but if you don't, I'll sure remember it the next time you come into this court room.

Mr. Daniel R. Bacalis, attorney for Charles Dustin Myers, presented a Settlement Offer to Charles Myers. Charles Myers disagreed with the conditions in the document and advised Mr. Bacalis that he wanted to take it to trial because the petitioner did not have any evidence of family violence. Mr. Bacalis advised Mr. Myers that he "knows this Judge and this is the best we can get". Mr. Bacalis stated in whining manner "We'll be here all day; we can come back and change it later". Mr. Bacalis stated "no one will put a gun to your head if you are not out by March 1st.

On 3/14/2024, I was present in Tarrant County Family Court #322. Ms. Cooper Carter presented Charles Myers with a Temporary Orders document.

Prior to the proceeding, Judge Jeffrey Kaitcer mentioned "I had to stay here until 6 last night to read all your filings. I know about the summary judgement".

During the proceeding, Charles Myers attempted to raise the issue of family violence allegations being the foundation of the case and was objected for relevance and sustained by Judge Kaitcer.

Cooper Carter called Morgan Myers to testify. Norgan testified she did not feel safe around Charles Myers. On cross examination, Charles Myers asked Morgan if she waived the 60 day waiting period due to an active protective order. Charles Myers was objected for relevance and Judge Kaitcer sustained. Charles Myers then brought up section 6.405(b) of the family code which was also waived as irrelevant.

During the proceeding, Judge Jeffrey Kaitcer made a comment speaking to Charles Myers "you don't care about your kids. All you care about is your business"

Judge Jeffrey Kaitcer instructed Charles Myers to sign the temporary orders by 1:30.
