You may also be able to talk to a lawyer for free at a legal advice clinic. For help finding a free legal advice clinic go to www.TexasLawHelp.org.

- It does not cost anything to file an answer.
- If you have been served, you have a limited time to file an answer. Counting from the day you were served, you have 20 days plus the following Monday, at 10 a.m. to file an answer. If you do not file an answer by the deadline, the Plaintiff can ask the court to enter a default judgment against you.
- Keep a copy of your answer for your records.
- Send a copy to the Plaintiff's lawyer or to the Plaintiff if they are not represented by a lawyer.
- Filing an answer usually means you have 30 days to exchange Required Initial Disclosures. Read more at www.TexasLawHelp.org.

MR 4.1

3. Specific Pleas Made Under Penalty of Perjury

Read Texas Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 93 for a list of specific pleas that must be verified or made under penalty of perjury. Ask a lawyer which specific pleas apply to your case.

I make the following specific pleas under penalty of perjury:

The Plaintiff, Morgan Michelle Myers, intentionally lied about allegations of family violence to the court, as evidenced by the complete absence of any police reports, medical records, or credible witnesses to corroborate such claims. I assert that my personal history is devoid of any such incidents and my record remains unblemished. Please see attached EXHIBIT B.

These unfounded allegations have caused significant undue stress and threaten the well-being of my children and myself. The claim that I have a history of family violence is categorically false and is maliciously designed to obstruct my parental rights and access to my children.

The timing and nature of these allegations suggest a strategic ploy to influence the outcome of concurrent legal proceedings — specifically, an eviction case and our ongoing divorce. It appears these claims were fabricated to leverage an advantage in these matters, rather than to protect any party from harm.

The Plaintiff also requested for joint conservatorship in the divorce and seeks co-parenting, which directly contradicts this order in and of itself.

In light of these considerations, I plead with the court to dismiss the protective order and to take appropriate measures to prevent further unwarranted interference with my family life and living situation, as my children's best interests remains my priority.

4. Affirmative Defenses

Read Texas Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 94 for a list of affirmative defenses. Ask a lawyer which affirmative defenses apply to your case.

Note: An affirmative defense is an independent reason that the Plaintiff should not win the lawsuit. If an affirmative defense is successful, you could win the lawsuit, even if what the Plaintiff says is true. If you file an answer and do not claim an affirmative defense, you may forever give up that defense.

I claim the affirmative defenses checked below:

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> accord and satisfaction | <input type="checkbox"/> estoppel | <input type="checkbox"/> license |
| <input type="checkbox"/> arbitration and award | <input type="checkbox"/> failure of consideration | <input type="checkbox"/> release |

| <input type="checkbox"/> discharge in bankruptcy | <input type="checkbox"/> injury to fellow servant | <input type="checkbox"/> statute of limitations |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> duress | <input type="checkbox"/> laches | <input type="checkbox"/> waiver |

I already paid the debt sued for. I paid $ _____ to _____ on _____ by _____.
(date) (check, cash, etc.)

Write any other details regarding payment of the debt here:

I also claim these additional affirmative defenses:

Abuse of Process: The petitioner has utilized the judicial proceedings as an instrument of malice and personal vendetta, with the primary intent of causing unwarranted harm to my reputation and rights, rather than seeking legitimate redress for a valid legal grievance.

Lack of Evidence: The petitioner has failed to provide any credible evidence, such as police reports, medical documentation to substantiate the allegations of family violence. My record is clear of any such incidents, underscoring the baseless nature

I reserve the right to file an Amended Defendant's Answer with the Court to plead additional verified pleas, affirmative defenses and claims, cross-claims, or third-party claims, as applicable, after further investigation and discovery.

5. Request for Judgment

I ask that Plaintiff take nothing from this lawsuit. I ask for costs of court. I ask for such other and further relief, at law or in equity, to which I may be justly entitled.

Background report for case consolidation

MR 5.4

Background Report for Case Consolidation

Case Details:

Divorce Case (Cause No. 322-744263-23) in the 322nd District Court of Tarrant County, filed on December 18, 2023.

Protective Order Case (Cause No. 322-744538-23) in the 322nd District Court of Tarrant County.

Reasons for Consolidation:

Interconnected Issues:

The divorce case and the protective order case involve overlapping issues concerning family violence allegations, which are central to the divorce proceedings and directly affect custody and visitation rights. The protective order case includes allegations of family violence, which are also a pivotal point in the divorce case in determining the waiver of the standard waiting period for the divorce.

Consistency in Rulings:

Consolidating the divorce and protective order cases would ensure consistency in the court's findings, particularly regarding any allegations of family violence and their impact on the dissolution of marriage, custody, and visitation rights.

Judicial Economy:

Hearing both cases together would promote judicial economy by avoiding duplication of legal proceedings, as both cases are likely to involve similar witnesses, evidence, and legal arguments.

Claims of False Statements:

There have been claims of false statements and perjury related to the protective order, which could have significant implications for the divorce case. For instance, the claim that the plaintiff intentionally lied about being unable to pay court fees and made false allegations of family violence to gain an advantage in the divorce proceedings suggests that a single judge should hear both matters for a clear understanding of the facts.

MR 5.5

Evidence of Misrepresentation and False Statements:

Evidence provided suggests that there have been misrepresentations to the court, including the transfer of funds from the joint account and the plaintiff's interaction with third parties, which could affect both the protective order and the divorce outcome. The protective order – which was based on claims of family violence – are entirely baseless as I have no record of family violence, and no evidence from the Plaintiff has been provided to substantiate these claims.

Landlord-Tenant Relationship:

The eviction case, although not directly related to family law matters, stems from claims and actions that are deeply intertwined with the divorce and protective order cases, suggesting that the alleged family violence and the actions of the plaintiff have been used to justify an eviction that coincides with the timing of the divorce and protective order filings.

Conclusion:

Given the overlapping factual and legal issues in the divorce and protective order cases, consolidation would serve the interests of justice and efficiency. It would ensure that the court has a comprehensive understanding of the intertwined nature of the family's circumstances, which is vital for fair and equitable resolution of these matters. While the eviction case may not be directly consolidated due to jurisdictional differences, it should be considered in context with the other cases to provide a complete picture of the ongoing disputes and to keep the best interests of our children intact.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles Myers

Dear Mr. Bacalis,

I am writing this letter to formally terminate your services as my legal counsel effective immediately.

This decision has not been easy, and I appreciate the efforts you have put forth in my case so far.

However, after careful consideration, I believe this is the necessary course of action for my family and myself moving forward.

Pursuant to the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, I am not required to disclose the cause for this decision, however, I have chosen to provide such cause as the reasons listed below:

My primary concern is that recent decisions, including the temporary grant of full custody to Plaintiff while dismissing the protective order outright without pursuing any ramifications do not align with the best interests of my children, and continue to enable the Plaintiffs weaponization of the court system.

I feel strongly that the outcomes so far have not adequately reflected the facts of the case and have been more about appeasing the judicial norms of Family Law and settling with Plaintiff when she has no leverage other than false accusations and concerning behavior including eviction attempts and several knowingly false statements on multiple court documents under penalty of perjury.

Additionally, I am deeply troubled by the impact of these proceedings on my children, my business, and my personal well-being, and how the malicious actions by the Plaintiff have been overlooked by the courts in all aspects, despite timely answers being filed and evidence put forth prior to acquiring your services.

I entered this legal process as a result of the self-destructive nature of the Plaintiff, who has disregarded her children's well-being and has continued to show she is anything but a fit parent throughout these proceedings.

She possesses no means to provide or care for the children, as her intentions are to utilize her family to dismantle everything I've worked and built for my children up to this point.

The temporary orders have already become a huge problem, as Plaintiff showed up to the house two days in a row, without any communication or care for the children. She didn't inquire, call, or even attempt to check how her daughters were doing while in my care, yet claims to be concerned about violence and has sought protective measures for both herself and the children on false allegations.

Please understand, this is not a reflection of your personal character or capabilities. It is a decision I am making based on what I believe to be in the best interest of my children and my family moving forward.

I require representation that aligns more closely with my perspective on these matters and who is prepared to challenge the status quo in court by taking into account all of the facts of the case, and who will put my kids interests first before any assumption or presumption about what may or may not happen, as well as utilize the immense volume of documentation that I have that showcases all points brought up herein and uphold the law in all regards.

Please consider this letter as a formal request to transfer all documents, files, and any other relevant information pertaining to my case at your earliest convenience and notify all relevant parties.

Your prompt action in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your service up to this point. I wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Respectfully,

IN THE 322nd DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY
STATE OF TEXAS

Morgan Michelle Myers,

Petitioner,

v.

Charles Dustin Myers,

Respondent

Cause No. 322-744263-23

Emergency Motion to Reconsider
Evidence and to Vacate Temporary Orders

This motion urgently calls for the Court's intervention to address critical procedural missteps in the matter of cause# 322-744263-23, aiming to reinstate the safety and stability that our children rightfully deserve until due process and all facts of the case can be considered by the Court. I am seeking immediate court intervention to correct procedural errors and address the misuse of the legal system by the Petitioner. This motion highlights the significant impact of the Petitioner's actions on our children's welfare and my unjust removal from our home based on frivolous claims.

In pursuit of justice and the well-being of the children at heart, I respectfully request that the Court reconsider all details, weighing the comprehensive scenario presented herein along with the supporting evidence. I am committed to the highest interests of my children and family, striving to resolve these matters efficiently and avoid unnecessary judicial expenditure. This document seeks to unveil the Petitioner's deliberate misrepresentation and misuse of the legal system, which has gravely disrupted our children's stability and emotional well-being by weaponizing the court system.

² Between December 14th, 2023, and December 22nd, 2023, the Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order, a Divorce Petition, a Protective Order, and instigated an Eviction suit.

NATURE OF SUITS AND THIRD-PARTY INFLUENCE

1. On December 1st, 2023, Petitioner announced the divorce with no plan in place for the children, no sign of marital discord leading up to this point to warrant such a decision, and no desire for counseling, communication, and no consideration for the time of year.
2. Between December 1st, 2023, and December 12th, 2023, all efforts are exhausted in an attempt to communicate with the Petitioner which lead to the subsequent discovery of an alarming volume of text messages that were directed towards two individuals – Debbie Price and Damen Kazlauskas, showing a significant level of influence.³
3. On December 12th, 2023, After the discovery of the communications between these two individuals combined with the irrational behavior from the Petitioner during such a critical time of year, I reached out to the Petitioner's grandfather via text message.⁴
4. On December 13th, 2023, Petitioner states she will be going to talk to her Grandparents alone. This conversation lasts between 9:55 and 1:30 A.M.
5. On December 14th, 2023, Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order. This order was denied by the court.
6. On December 15th, 2023, Petitioner involves her family into the situation. Particularly, Dan Branthoover became involved. He is the boyfriend of the Petitioner's Mother. Shortly thereafter, I received a notice from our joint bank account stating that $1,576 had just been withdrawn. As our bank statement for December 2023 will demonstrate – the transaction record shows the funds being transferred directly to Mr. Branthoover's PayPal account.⁵

⁴ See attached EXHIBIT A.2 – A true and accurate copy of the referenced text message in paragraph 3.

⁵ See attached EXHIBIT A.3 – The true and accurate bank statement reflecting the transaction referenced in paragraph 6.

7. On December 16th, 2023, Petitioner's transaction under the advice of Mr. Branthroover lead to our joint bank account becoming $-800 overdrawn. I requested from Mr. Branthroover via text message that he needs to return the funds immediately, where he subsequently admits to this transaction having occurred.⁶
8. On December 17th, 2023, Petitioner's grandmother, Margie Wilson, initiates an Eviction Suit by serving me an eviction notice around 11:00 AM CST.
9. On December 18th, 2023 – Petitioner writes “VOID” on the Eviction Notice, and physically tears it in half.⁷
10. On December 19th, 2023, Mr. Branthroover uses intimidation tactics by impersonating an attorney despite having no license to practice law in the State of Texas.⁸
11. On December 27th, 2023, I am served the Divorce Papers by the Constable.
12. On December 28th, 2023, I am served the Protective Order, followed by the Eviction shortly thereafter by the Constable.

The Protective Order (Show Cause) hearing was set for January 16th, 2024, and the Eviction hearing for January 17th, 2024.

The documented timeline of events, particularly during the holiday season, underscores a notable disregard for our children's welfare. This has enabled the Petitioner to inappropriately utilize the judicial system to disrupt the stable environment our children have known, influenced significantly by third-party actions as previously detailed. The forthcoming section of this motion will highlight the specific frivolous claims and false statements found within each filing initiated by the Petitioner.

⁶ See attached EXHIBIT A.4 – Overdrawn account notice from PNC bank on December 16th, 2023.

⁷ See attached EXHIBIT A.5 – The physically torn and voided Eviction notice served on December 17th, 2023.

⁸ See attached EXHIBIT A.6 – Mr. Branthroover refers to Petitioner as “his client” while having no license in law.

FRIVOLOUS CLAIMS AND FALSE STATEMENTS

A. EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. As mentioned above, Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order on December 14th, 2023. This protective order was denied by the courts.
2. Due to the fact this order was not granted by the court, one could conclude that there was not a clear and present danger of family violence.¹

B. THE DIVORCE PETITION

1. Petition was filed on 2024-12-18 under an Affidavit of Inability to pay.²
2. The Petitioner's action of filing for divorce under an Affidavit of Inability to pay three days after transferring $1,576 to herself starkly contravenes the mandates set forth in Chapter 10, Section 10.001 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. This section asserts that each claim or legal contention must be warranted by existing law or a nonfrivolous argument for the modification of existing law or the establishment of new law, and that each factual contention has or is likely to have evidentiary support after further investigation or discovery³.
3. The Petitioner violated Chapter 10, Section 10.001 a second time within the same document when she intentionally elected to waive the 60-day waiting period claiming to have an active protective order against me that found family violence had occurred during our marriage⁴ despite being denied such an order just five days prior on December 14th, 2023.
5. The final page of the Divorce Petition for service to the Office of the Attorney General was left unsigned by the Petitioner.

³ CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE, TITLE 2, SUBTITLE A, CHAPTER 10, Sec. 10.001.

⁴ TEXAS FAMILY CODE, Sec. 6.405 – The petitioner shall attach to the petition a copy of each order described by Subsection (a)(1). No such order, as required, was attached to the divorce petition, because no such order exists.

MR 12.8

C. EVICTION SUIT

1. The suit was unlawful by nature⁵, as the grounds for eviction were based on family status, referencing the divorce as well as a protective order that had been denied on December 14th, 2023. The suit was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction on January 17th, 2024.⁶

D. PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. This suit was the second attempt by the Petitioner to have me removed from the home, which ultimately succeeded.

2. The claims within this suit mentioned sexually aggressive comments and threatening behavior. These allegations are materially false, as the Petitioner possesses no evidence, and has presented no evidence in relation to these claims since the initiation of the suit. Despite this, as video and image evidence will show once a fair trial date is set, the Petitioner and I continued to maintain stability at our family home and preserved the sense of normalcy that our daughters have been accustomed to their entire lives up until January 16th, 2024.

The Court's decision to remove me from my home and my children's lives on January 16th, 2024, albeit preliminary and unjustified, bypassed the safeguarding of the children's emotional, psychological, and physical well-being. This oversight is compounded by the Petitioner's actions. The juxtaposition of the Court's decision against the backdrop of the Petitioner's inattention to the children's needs illuminates a disconcerting disregard for the paramount principle that custody determinations should primarily serve the children's best interests. The final section of this motion will highlight the procedural aspects of the events unfolding between the dates of January 16th, 2024, and February 1st, 2024, and pray the court will rectify this situation by restoring the stability to our family by vacating the current temporary orders that are in place until a proper investigation can be completed by the courts.

⁶ See attached EXHIBIT B.2 – A true and accurate copy of the Eviction Dismissal.

THE PROTECTIVE ORDER HEARINGS

1. In preparation for the Protective Order hearing on January 16th, 2024, I filed with the Court an answer to the Protective Order on January 2nd, 2024 as well as two motions – a motion to consolidate the divorce with the protective order, filed on January 4th, 2024, as well as a motion of continuance, filed on January 8th, 2024 for the purpose to acquire counsel due to the complex nature of the case.¹ All three filings were accepted by the court.
2. On January 16th, 2024, both parties sought additional time to secure legal representation. Despite not reviewing any evidence, witness testimonies, or documents related to the motions, and acknowledging the denial of a previous Emergency Protective Order, the court mandated my departure from our home within four hours. This decision, unexpectedly made, awarded custody to the Petitioner, overlooking my concerns about the adverse effects on our children and my work from home. This ruling, which both parties did not sign, set the case to resume on January 22nd, 2024, to allow time for obtaining counsel.²
3. Following the court's directive, I relocated to my father's residence in Flower Mound until the subsequent hearing. During this interval, the Petitioner did not take the initiative to have the children call once and did not provide any information as to how they were doing, showcasing her lack of empathy and concern for our children's well-being and stability. After incurring substantial expenses to secure representation, I detailed my case and concerns to my attorney, preparing for the next court appearance.
4. On January 22nd, 2024, the Petitioner chose to seek legal representation just minutes before the hearing was due to start, indicating a disregard for the process. My lawyer recommended agreeing to a continuance, thereby extending the period I couldn't work and impacting our established family dynamics. This resulted in a third hearing being set for February 1st, coinciding with my birthday, and a second rendition being ordered.³

² See attached EXHIBIT C.2 – A true and accurate copy of the unsigned rendition ordered on January 16th, 2024.

³ See attached EXHIBIT C.3 – A true and accurate copy of the second rendition ordered on January 22nd, 2024.

5. On February 1st, 2024, during the third hearing, the substantive issues I had raised were not addressed, nor was there any exchange of evidence between our legal representatives. Despite the focus of the hearing supposed to be on the protective order, the discussions veered into custody and child support matters. My lawyer presented the sole option of a temporary return to the family home for 30 days with expanded visitation rights, coupled with a child support obligation starting in April. This outcome, which diverged significantly from the case's core issues, compelled me to reconsider my legal representation. Consequently, I decided to terminate my attorney's services and embarked on drafting this motion myself, aiming to bring the court's attention back to the pivotal elements of the case that had thus far been neglected while able to legally reside in my home.

CONCLUSION AND PRAYER

In conclusion, this motion has laid bare the stark realities and procedural aberrations that have marred the essence of justice and due process in the matter of Cause No. 322-744263-23. Through the course of these proceedings, it has become abundantly clear that the actions taken by the Petitioner, Morgan Michelle Myers, have not only disregarded the welfare and best interests of our children but have also illuminated her unfitness as a parent. Her actions speak to a pattern of deceit, manipulation, and an unsettling willingness to leverage the judicial system for personal vendettas, all at the expense of the emotional and psychological well-being of our children.

The court, in its decisions, inadvertently facilitated this troubling trajectory by removing me, Charles Dustin Myers, from the lives of our children based on unsubstantiated claims and without due consideration of my role as a devoted and stable parent. This oversight has not only disrupted the lives of our children but has also significantly impaired my ability to provide for them, casting a long shadow over their future stability and welfare.

Moreover, the conduct of my Counsel involved has further compounded these issues, demonstrating a distressing disregard for the intricate dynamics and facts of this case. This has culminated in a situation where the paramount importance of the children's best interests and the fundamental principles of fairness and justice have been overshadowed by procedural missteps and a lack of thorough investigation into the Petitioner's fitness as a parent.

Therefore, it is with a heavy hearted yet unwavering resolve that I implore the Court to take immediate and decisive action to rectify these wrongs. Specifically, I respectfully request the Court to:

1. Vacate the existing temporary orders that unjustly removed me from my home and separated me from my children, restoring the status quo ante until a thorough and unbiased evaluation of the facts can be conducted, as the Texas Constitution requires. If left as it stands, these orders will further compound the issues at hand, and will exacerbate the chaos introduced into the children's lives.
2. Set a fair hearing date to delve into the substantive issues at hand, ensuring that all parties are given an equitable opportunity to present their case and that the best interests of our children are placed at the forefront of all considerations.
3. Scrutinize any response or new claims from the Petitioner or her counsel with the utmost diligence, given the established pattern of deceitful and manipulative behavior exhibited by the Petitioner throughout these proceedings.
4. Consider awarding me full custody of our children, ensuring their continued access to a stable, nurturing environment, and the consistent provision of their needs, which I am fully committed to upholding. Furthermore, in alignment with my enduring belief in the importance of both parents in the lives of our children, I pledge to facilitate and encourage a healthy, constructive relationship between the children and their mother, provided she demonstrates a genuine commitment to their well-being and stability.
5. In seeking these remedies, I do so not out of vindictiveness but from a place of deep concern for the welfare of our children and a steadfast belief in the principles of justice and fairness. Despite the pain and turmoil of these proceedings, my ultimate desire is for peace and the best possible outcome for all parties involved, most importantly, our children. It is my sincere hope that the Court will recognize the gravity of the situation and act in a manner that prioritizes the well-being of our children, ensuring their return to a life marked by stability and love.

I affirm under penalty of perjury that all claims herein are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Respectfully submitted on this 9th day of February 2024,

/s/ Charles Dustin Myers

Ms. Weaver,

I appreciate your prompt response indicating the availability on March 14th. Due to the emergency nature of the circumstances, and as outlined in my previous correspondence, a date on or before March 1st would be more appropriate.

This would allow us to address the urgent issues at hand without further delay accommodating any scheduling conflicts.

If March 14th is indeed the earliest live date available for your office, please advise a date and time that works best on or before March 1st, 2024 that we can schedule for a video conference hearing.

Upon your correspondence, I will draft the appropriate agreed motion and send it to your office for Ms. Carter's signature, and notify the Court in accordance with Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 21 d and Tarrant County Family Law Local Rules.

NOTICE AND UNSWORN
DECLARATION

03.03.24

MR 15

IN THE 322nd DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY
 STATE OF TEXAS

Morgan Michelle Myers,

Petitioner,

v.

Charles Dustin Myers,

Respondent

Cause No. 322-744263-23

NOTICE AND UNSWORN DECLARATION

March 3, 2024

Dear Clerk of the Court,

This letter is submitted on behalf of the Respondent in the above-referenced case to provide the court with an update on the Respondent's efforts to uphold the well-being of the children under the current agreed arrangements pending review and to navigate the complexities of this case. The following reasons why it is impossible for the Respondent to vacate the family home under the current agreement pending review are as follows:

1. Since the inception of the case, the Respondent's primary focus has been to reset the status quo ante for the benefit of the children, ensuring their lives remain as normal and uninterrupted as possible during this transitory period after it was significantly disrupted beginning on January 16th, 2024. Despite the challenges posed by the non-suited protective order and the dropped allegations of family violence which were the foundations of all decisions made within this case, the Respondent has respected the orders pending review, and has strived to provide a stable and supportive environment for his children during his designated time, all while planning a transition that best suits his children.
2. During the short amount of time the Respondent has been re-instated to his home, the Petitioner has, on multiple occasions, entered the residence unannounced and without prior consent, actions which stand in stark contrast to her prior requests for protection which have governed this case.

 DISTRICT CLERK
 TARRANT COUNTY, TEXAS
 BY: /s/ Catherine Saenz

3. The Petitioner has changed employers since the signing of the agreement.
4. Petitioner has relinquished custody of the children to the Respondent on multiple days during her scheduled time, showcasing the Respondent's ability to care for his children at any time given his at-home work schedule specifically crafted to ensure participation in every aspect of his children's lives remains possible.
5. The Respondent must dedicate substantial time to researching and understanding legal procedures to ensure compliance with court rules and to advocate effectively for the best interests of his children. He is prepared to present all relevant facts and evidence at the upcoming hearing on March 14th, should his partial summary judgment not be accepted.
6. The Respondent has made efforts over the past 30 days to maintain normalcy for his children, showcasing his dedication to their well-being. The Respondent has maintained an amicable relationship with the Grandparents residing next-door, allowing frequent access during his time with the children to visit and attend church, maintaining normalcy and peace.
7. The choice to remain outside the home is a deliberate decision by the Petitioner during the transition period. Self-hosting and advertising is an essential requirement for my at-home operations, which is essential to maintain the quality of life our children are accustomed to. Multiple alternative housing options are available to the Petitioner, including the house next door.

The Respondent remains committed to following the court's directives and ensuring the best possible outcomes for his children. He appreciates the court's attention to these matters and is ready to provide further information or clarification as needed.

My name is Charles Dustin Myers my date of birth is ~~02-01-1991~~, and my address is ~~6641 Anne Court, Watauga TX, 76148~~, United States. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

health-care expense.

For the Court to hold the nonincurring conservator in civil or criminal contempt for failing to pay the nonincurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of a health-care expense, the incurring conservator must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the nonincurring conservator personally received receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits reflecting the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense no later than thirty days after the incurring conservator received them. Even if the incurring conservator fails to meet that burden of proof, the Court may award the incurring conservator a judgment in the nature of child support against the nonincurring conservator in the amount of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense the nonincurring conservator was ordered but fail to pay.

6. WARNING - A PARENT ORDERED TO PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE OR TO PAY THE OTHER PARENT ADDITIONAL CHILD SUPPORT FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE WHO FAILS TO DO SO IS LIABLE FOR NECESSARY MEDICAL EXPENSES OF THE CHILDREN, WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER THE EXPENSES WOULD HAVE BEEN PAID IF HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE HAD BEEN PROVIDED, AND FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUMS, DENTAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS, OR CONTRIBUTIONS, IF ANY, PAID ON BEHALF OF THE CHILDREN.

7. Notice to Employer - On this date a Medical Support Notice was signed by the Court. For the purpose of section 1169 of title 29 of the United States Code, the conservator not carrying the health or dental insurance policy is designated the custodial parent and alternate recipient's representative.

Warnings to Parties

WARNINGS TO PARTIES: FAILURE TO OBEY A COURT ORDER FOR CHILD SUPPORT OR FOR POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. A FINDING OF CONTEMPT MAY BE PUNISHED BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, A FINE OF UP TO $500 FOR EACH VIOLATION, AND A MONEY JUDGMENT FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS.

In the Matter of the Marriage of Minor Children.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

In the 322nd District Court.

Tarrant County, Texas

Respectfully submitted,

Charles Dustin Myers

MR 19.1

RESPONDENT'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION & ADMISSIONS

1. Respondent, CHARLES DUSTIN MYERS, asks the Court to compel Petitioner, MORGAN MICHELLE MYERS, through her attorney of record, to produce the documents requested in Respondent's First Request for Production, Documents, and Admissions filed on 9/19/24.

2. Petitioner, MORGAN MICHELLE MYERS, has failed to timely object or respond to the requested admissions. Thus, they are deemed admitted under Texas Law. Tex.R.Civ.P. 198.2(c); see Nguyen v. Nguyen, No. 02-20-00070-CV, 23 (Tex. App. Aug. 26, 2021).

I. INTRODUCTION

3. On September 19, 2024, Respondent served Petitioner with his First Request for Disclosure, Production, and Admissions pursuant to Rule 190.3 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. This request was made under the Level 2 Discovery Control Plan, with the discovery period ending thirty days prior to the final trial date.

4. The Respondent's First Request for Disclosure, Production, and Admissions requested essential information and documents, which Petitioner is legally obligated to provide. A true and correct copy of this request is attached to this Motion as Exhibit A.

5. Despite the statutory requirement under 198.2(a) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Petitioner has failed to respond or object to these requests in a timely manner. As such, Respondent now seeks an Order from this Court to compel Petitioner to comply with discovery obligations under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. On December 15, 2023, Petitioner defrauded the marital estate by transferring $1,576 to a third party without Respondent's consent the week of Christmas, which resulted in the marital account being overdrawn by $800. Respondent specifically requested Petitioner to admit or deny this fact in Request for Admission No. 3, which states:

"Admit or deny that Petitioner transferred $1,576 to Daniel Branthoover's PayPal account on December 15, 2023, which resulted in the marital bank account being overdrawn by $-800."

Petitioner's failure to respond to this admission request within the statutory time period should result in it being deemed admitted under Tex. R. Civ. P. 198.2(c). This admission is critical to Respondent's claim that Petitioner mishandled marital funds and defrauded the marital estate.

7. On December 15, 2023, Petitioner allegedly influenced her grandparents to serve an eviction notice on Respondent, citing a protective order and divorce petition that had not yet been filed. This is addressed in Request for Admission No. 5, which states:

"Admit or deny that over the weekend of December 15, 2023, Petitioner influenced her grandparents to serve an eviction notice to Respondent, citing a protective order and divorce petition that had not yet been filed."

Petitioner's lack of response to this admission request should result in it being deemed admitted, supporting Respondent's claim that the eviction notice was based on misleading or premature grounds.

8. On March 14, 2024, Petitioner, through her attorney, served Respondent with temporary orders. These orders included Respondent's alleged consent, as evidenced by his signature. However, Respondent disputes this alleged consent and the validity of these orders, as noted in Request for Admission No. 13, which states:

"Admit or deny that the Respondent has abided by the current temporary orders in place to the best of his ability, and that the child support calculations, the child custody arrangements, and the current injunctions in place have no legal or factual foundation."

By failing to respond to this admission request, Petitioner has effectively admitted that the temporary orders and related arrangements lack a legal or factual basis. This deemed admission supports Respondent's challenge to the validity of these orders.

9. Petitioner's Original Petition for Divorce, filed on December 18, 2023, allegedly contains false and misleading statements regarding family violence and the existence of an active protective order. Respondent addressed this allegation in Request for Admission No. 6, which states:

"Admit or deny that on December 18, 2023, the Original Petition for Divorce filed by Petitioner contains false and misleading statements regarding family violence and an active order of protection."

Petitioner's failure to respond to this admission request should lead to this fact being deemed admitted, supporting Respondent's assertion that the Original Petition for Divorce was filed with false claims.

10. Similarly, Petitioner's Protective Order filed on December 22, 2023, allegedly included additional claims of family violence without any active protective order in place during the marriage. This is addressed in Request for Admission No. 7, which states:

"Admit or deny that on December 22, 2023, the Original Protective Order filed by Petitioner contained additional claims of family violence, and at the time of filing, no active order of protection existed, and no such order has existed throughout the marriage."

By not responding to this request, Petitioner has effectively admitted that no active protective order existed during the marriage, thus supporting Respondent's position that the protective order contains unfounded claims.

11. During the marriage, Petitioner directly benefited from and was aware of Respondent's work-from-home business until his removal from the residence on January 16, 2024. This is addressed in Request for Admission No. 10, which states:

"Admit or deny that during the marriage, Petitioner directly benefitted from and was aware of Respondent's work-from-home business up until his removal on January 16, 2024."

Petitioner's failure to respond should result in this fact being deemed admitted, supporting Respondent's claim that Petitioner had full knowledge of and benefited from his business operations during the marriage.

III. CONCLUSION

Each of these facts corresponds directly to a specific Request for Admission that Petitioner failed to respond to within the statutory time period. As such, Respondent requests that these facts be deemed admitted by the Court under Tex. R. Civ. P. 198.2(c), as they establish a basis for Respondent's claims regarding misuse of marital assets, false statements in legal filings, and improper issuance of temporary orders.

IV. PRAYER

Respondent prays that the court:

1. Order the Petitioner, MORGAN MICHELLE MYERS, to produce the requested documents outlined in the first request for discovery, production, and admissions to Respondent, CHARLES DUSTIN MYERS and deem all admissions as admitted.

2. Order any further relief the court deems equitable and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
