STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Nature of the Case:

The underlying suit is a divorce proceeding initiated by Mother overseen by two separate Judges which waived the 60-day waiting period due to an alleged active order of protection against the Father.App. 11 and was consolidated with a protective order claiming harassment and sexual harassment from the Realtor.App. 21.

Respondents:

Respondents are Hon. James Munford, presiding District Judge & Hon. Jeffrey N. Kaitcer, presiding Associate Judge of the 322nd District Court of Tarrant County, Texas.

Respondents' actions:

DJ Respondent ordered the Realtor to vacate his home and place of business at the initial show cause hearing on January 16th, 2024, effectively removing one parent from the Children's lives abruptly, without notice or hearing, and despite granting a continuance for the parties to obtain legal counsel.App. 70. AJ Respondent presided over the case beginning on the first reset date of January 22nd, 2024, where Mother failed to acquire Counsel until just minutes before the hearing, delaying the proceedings until February 1st, 2024,App. 72 where the Father was advised to sign an agreed order with no alternative option available at the time.App. 81-86. Father terminated his counsel and filed for reconsideration on February 8th, 2024, which AJ Respondent heard on March 14th, 2024.App. 177.

Statement of Jurisdiction

This Honorable Court has jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus under Section 22.221(b) of the Texas Government Code.

Issues Presented

Issue No. 1: After denying an emergency protective order on December 14th, 2023, DJ Respondent erred in rendering temporary orders having the same effect as an emergency ex-parte order, which affected the parent-child relationship and property division without notice and hearing and did not consider the Children's best interests when removing the Realtor from his place of business and Children's lives without any justifiable reason.

Issue No. 2: AJ Respondent abused his discretion when rendering temporary orders affecting the parent-child relationship without notice and hearing, allowing the Mother more time to acquire Counsel while prolonging the Father's unjustified removal from his home and business, and leaving the Children without an involved parent who provides for them out of the home, disregarding their best interests and emotional well-being entirely.

Issue No. 3: Both Respondents abused their discretion by participating in the drafting, prolonging, and subsequent upholding of temporary orders that lacked factual or legal grounding and disregarded the children's best interests while allowing counsel to commandeer the proceedings without substantial discovery or judicial oversight, leading to the drastic upheaval of the Children's only known way of life.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

TO THE HONORABLE JUSTICES OF THE SECOND COURT OF APPEALS:

Relator C.D.M., (“Father”) submits this Petition for Writ of Mandamus, and as grounds, therefore, would show as follows:

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Between December 14th, 2023, and December 27th, 2023, the Mother filed for two protective orders, a divorce, and influenced an eviction suit - each of them claiming family violence.

On December 14th, 2023, Mother requested an emergency ex-parte order of protection from DJ Respondent.¹

On December 17th, 2023, the Mother’s grandmother served the Realtor with an eviction notice citing a yet to be filed divorce petition and protective order. On December 18th, 2024, the Mother wrote “VOID” on the notice in black ink and physically tore it in half. App 1-2.

On December 18th, 2023, The Mother filed for divorce waiving the 60-day waiting period claiming that an active order of protection was active against the Father.App. 11.

On December 22nd, 2023, the Mother filed for a Protective Order against the Father despite getting denied an emergency protective order on December 14th, 2024.App. 15-21.

On December 27th, 2023, The ex-parte protective order was filed with the Court against the Father, indicating a denial based on the “Xs” marked over the pages.App.22-25.

On December 28th, 2023, the Father was served with the Eviction suit initiated by the Mother’s grandparents.App. 26. A third ex-parte protective order was filed with the Court also containing “Xs” marked across the pages.

App. 27-30.

B. Between January 2nd, 2024, and the initial Show Cause hearing scheduled for January 16th, 2024, the Father prepared his defense to address the baseless allegations of family violence made against him.²

² At the time of this filing, not one document has been filed corroborating the claims made by the Mother or her Counsel regarding family violence.

On January 2nd, 2024, Father filed his answer to the protective order.App. 31-35. The answer was accompanied by the Father's criminal record from the Texas Department of Public Safety, marked as EXHIBIT B.App. 36-37.

On January 3rd, 2024, Father filed a motion to consolidate for judicial efficiency.App. 38-41. Father's motion to consolidate was accompanied by his Background Report for Case Consolidation.App. 42-43.

On January 8th, 2024, the Father filed a motion for continuance.App. 44-46. The Father's motion for continuance was filed with a brief attached, explaining that he had been focusing on the Children's holidays and school vacation while simultaneously battling concurrent litigation by the Mother and landlords, and was requesting the continuance to allow more time to prepare given these circumstances.App. 47-49.

C. On January 16th, 2024, the Father was ordered to vacate the family home and place of business on four hours' notice, and full custody was awarded to the Mother.

On January 16th, 2024, the Father was ordered to vacate his home without due process, and despite the Father's motion for continuance being granted alongside his motion for consolidation, this decision was made without any witnesses being called and before the Father could obtain legal Counsel and the hearing was re-scheduled for January 22nd, 2024.App. 50-51.

On the evening of January 16th, 2024, Father filed his Counterpetition for DivorceApp. 52-61, accompanied by a comprehensive statement of context to provide insights into the case, detailing the situation, and outline the evidence the Father would present at the reset hearing on January 22nd, 2024.App. 62-67. Father also filed an unsworn declaration to shed light on the conspiratorial nature of the collective actions taken against him by the Mother and her family.App. 68-71.

D. After being removed from his home, the Father attended the eviction hearing and prevailed on January 17th, 2024.

On January 17th, 2024, less than 24 hours after being ordered to vacate the residence, the Father attended the eviction hearing at Justice of the Peace 1 in Fort Worth, Texas, where he prevailed for lack of jurisdiction.App. 72.

On January 19th, 2024, Father retained Counsel.

On January 19th, 2024, Father retained Counsel to advocate on his Children's behalf and represent his interests.SApp. 2.

E. Mother's failure to acquire counsel in time for the reset hearing resulted in further delays on January 22nd, 2024, due to AJ Respondent granting her continuance.

On January 22nd, 2024, after Father acquired Counsel and attending the reset hearing, Mother failed to acquire representation until minutes before the hearing started to which a continuance was requested and subsequently granted, causing further delays in the proceedings, and prompting yet another reset for February 1st, 2024.App. 73-74.

F. At the next hearing on February 1st, 2024, Father's Counsel drafted an Associate Judge's Agreed Report, and part of this agreement, Mother dropped the protective order suit against the Father while granting him temporary relief until March 1st.

On February 1st, 2024, the hearing was usurped by Father's Counsel and was suddenly focused on the drafting of an Associate

Judge's ReportApp. 75-80 with the addition of temporary child support to be paid by the FatherApp. 76 rather than holding a hearing to discuss the issues that were directly communicated via email leading up to the hearing.SApp 3-7. The last page of the orders had specific procedural requirements that were part of the order that stated:

"A typed written Order conforming to this Report will follow within 20 days from the date this Report is signed. The Temporary Order shall be prepared by Dan Bacalis³. Each attorney should approve the Order. The parties do not need to approve the Order. The attorney reviewing the proposed Order shall have five (5) days to do so. There are no ten (10) day letters. If an agreement is not reached, a Motion to Sign shall be filed and set within thirty (30) days from the signing of this Report."App. 79.

The agreement allowed the Father back into the family home so he could work and regain his active role in his Children's lives until March 1st App. 77 while simultaneously removing the Children from their own home until the same date and dropping the protective order suit initiated by the Mother which had been the basis for every decision leading up to this point in the case.App. 77.

³ Dan Bacalis was terminated on February 5th, 2024, by the Father, making these procedural stipulations outlined in the order arguably impossible to satisfy without modification.

G. Father terminated the services of his legal Counsel on February 5th, 2024.

On February 5th, 2024, Father's Counsel was terminated due to ineffective representation, and a notice was promptly filed with the Court.App. 81-83. SApp. 8.

On February 6th, 2024, an agreed motion for withdrawal of attorney was signed by the Father and his Counsel and filed with the Court.App. 84-87.

H. On February 9th, 2024, Father filed his emergency motion to reconsider / vacate temporary orders.

The Father filed his motion to reconsider evidence and vacate temporary orders on February 9th, 2024, App. 88-90, accompanied by a detailed brief which aimed to challenge the overall foundation of the case and bring to light the procedural missteps and re-focus the case on the Children's best interests.App. 91-98.

I. The Order for Withdrawal of Attorney was rendered and served to all parties on February 12th, 2024.

On February 12th, 2024, the Order for Withdrawal of Attorney was filed with the Clerk containing AJ Respondent's signature dated February 8th, 2024, which stated that the Court found no pending settings or deadlines within the case.App. 99-101.

J. On February 13th, 2024, Father communicated with Mother's Counsel regarding the scheduling of the reconsideration motion.

On February 13th, 2024, Father reached out via email to Mother's counsel regarding the scheduling of the reconsideration motion, where she claimed that she would have availability nearly a month later, and also claimed that she would be filing a counter-motion.⁴SApp 15.

K. The Father moved for a Partial Summary Judgement on February 22nd, 2024.

On February 22nd, 2024, Father filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgement after no counter-motion was filed by Mother's Counsel with an accompanying brief to argue that the evidence and procedural history presented in the case clearly favor his position, demonstrating that the actions taken against him were not supported by the substantive facts of the case or in the best interest of the children, eliminating the need for a hearing regarding the reconsideration motion.App. 102-111. The Father's proposed parenting plan was attached to the motion as EXHIBIT D.App. 112-115.

⁴ This counter motion was never filed.

L. On February 27th, a Notice of Hearing was served regarding Father's Reconsideration Motion.

On February 27th, a Notice of Hearing was served on all Parties scheduled for March 14th, 2024, on Father's reconsideration Motion. App. 116-117.

M. Father filed an Unsworn Declaration with the Court on March 3rd, 2024.

On March 3rd, 2024, Father filed a Notice and unsworn declaration with the Court explaining he would be unable to vacate the home by March 1st, as the Mother's employment had changed, and that it would not be in the Children's best interest. App. 118-121.

N. Father and Mother attended the reconsideration hearing on March 14th, 2024.

On March 14th, 2024, Minutes before the hearing, Mother's Counsel hands the Father the agreed orders reduced to writing in the Courtroom, which differed from the original agreed orders signed on February 1st, 2024, such as the Father requiring to vacate the home by March 20th, rather than March 1st, and the Mother and Children being allowed to return on the 30th, not the 1st, which left a 10-day gap where neither party would be occupying the residence. SApp. 16. Father's reconsideration motion was denied on March 14th, 2024. App. 122.

0. Father filed a Notice of Judicial Review With the Court on March 26th, 2024.

On March 26th, 2024, Father filed his Second Amended Notice of Judicial ReviewApp. 123-171 that contains familial background history.App.132 as well as employment history and family dynamics.App. 133-140. This review also contains a statement of facts with several linked documents embedded within the filing that reiterate many facts brought forth within this mandamus petition.App.141-150. Most critically, the Respondent's Parental Index within the document highlights the Father's pivotal role in the Children's lives throughout these proceedings.App.151-154. SApp. 17-55.

This document also contains sworn statements from the Father's business clients that was offered at the hearing on March 14th, 2024, corroborating the Father's active involvement in the Children's lives, work ethic, and history working out of the family residence.App.172-187.

P. On March 26th, 2024, the Agreed Associate Judge's Report was reduced to writing and became Temporary Orders, and was served on the parties.

On March 26th, 2024, the judgement and denial of Father's reconsideration motion was filed with the Clerk and served on the parties, rendering the current temporary orders App. 188-226 effective until the signing of the final decree of divorce. App 224.

II.

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

DJ Respondent abused his discretion when naming the Mother primary managing conservator of the children during a protective order hearing before any witnesses could be called or any evidence could be presented by the Father, disregarding TEX FAM. CODE 105.001(b) which clearly states, "an order may not be rendered under Subsection (a)(1), (2), or (5) except after notice and a hearing.". In light of these facts, by DJ Respondent naming the Mother primary managing conservator of the Children, which falls under TEX. FAM CODE 105.001(a)(1), he clearly abused his discretion.

AJ Respondent abused his discretion on January 22nd, 2024, when DJ Respondent's orders expired, and AJ Respondent rendered temporary orders for the temporary conservatorship of the Children and excluded the Father from the residence without a hearing due to the Mother's inability to hire counsel until just minutes prior to the reset hearing. “[A]n order may not be rendered under Subsection (a)(1), (2), or (5) except after notice and a hearing.”. TEX FAM. CODE 105.001(b)

AJ Respondent also clearly abused his discretion when signing the Agreed Associate Judge's Report on February 1st, 2024, drafted by Father's attorney for “the temporary conservatorship of the children” FAM CODE § 105.001(a)(1) , and “for the temporary support of the children” TEX. FAM CODE § 105.001(a)(2) when such an order “may not be rendered...before notice and hearing.” TEX FAM. CODE 105.001(b). Given the fact that no hearing had taken place up to this point in the case, and given the temporary relief sought was a part of the agreement, the Father, who had been unable to work since January 16th, 2024, signed the agreement as there was no better alternative at the time, where he then immediately terminated his Counsel and challenged the orders' foundational basis on March 14th, which was denied, leaving no remedy of relief for the Realtor other than this petition for writ of mandamus.

Furthermore, AJ Respondent abused his discretion when entering the temporary orders after notice and hearing despite them failing to meet the procedural requirements ordered in the Agreed Associate Judge's Report that he previously signed. The Report was reduced to writing by Mother's Counsel just minutes before the reconsideration hearing on March 14th, 2024, and were filed as Temporary Orders with the Clerk of the court on March 26th, 2024. The only witness called in this case was the Mother during the reconsideration hearing for the purpose of obtaining legal fees. The documents filed within this case will show that both Respondent's determinations are made on no factual basis and the Children's best interests have been ignored outright, and hinge on a misapplication of law and without supporting evidence.

III.

ARGUMENT

A. AVAILABILITY OF MANDAMUS RELIEF

Mandamus is an appropriate remedy for a parent to attack the issuance of temporary orders in a custody proceeding, since such orders are not subject to interlocutory appeal. Dancy v. Daggett, 815 S.W.2d 548, 549 (Tex. 1991) (per curiam).

A writ of mandamus is the correct recourse when the trial court exhibits an abuse of discretion and there is no other adequate legal remedy available, such as an appeal. In re Prudential Insurance Company of America, 148 S.W.3d 124, 135-36 (Tex. 2004)

Furthermore, conservatorship determinations made after a bench trial are "subject to review only for abuse of discretion and may be reversed only if the decision is arbitrary and unreasonable."

In re J.A.J., 243 S.W.3d 611, 616 (Tex. 2007) quoting Gillespie v. Gillespie, 644 S.W.2d 449, 451(Tex. 1982)

B. Issue No. 1

After denying an emergency protective order on December 14th, 2023, DJ Respondent erred in rendering temporary orders having the same effect as an emergency ex-parte order, which affected the parent-child relationship and property division without notice and hearing and did not consider the Children's best interests when removing the Realtor from his place of business and Children's lives without any justifiable reason.

The Texas Family Code provides that "after notice and hearing, the court may render an appropriate order, including the granting of a temporary injunction for the preservation of the property and protection of the parties as deemed necessary and equitable." Id § 6.502(a). Considering no witnesses were called or evidence produced at the initial appearance on January 16th, 2024, the necessity of such significant actions were unreasonable.

DJ Respondent abused his discretion by awarding the mother temporary primary conservatorship of the Children and sole occupancy of the residency before any witnesses were called or evidence presented, despite granting a continuance for the parties to acquire legal representation and resetting the case for January 22nd, 2024 when "[c]ertain orders, such as those regarding temporary conservatorship of children, may not be rendered without notice and a hearing..." In re S.M., 13-23-00371-CV at 11 (Tex. App. Oct 04, 2023). Furthermore, the hearing was scheduled to Show Cause regarding a protective order, but was immediately turned into a SAPCR suit upon the granting of a continuance when no first appearance had been set for the divorce. Rule of Civil Procedure 245 provides that the trial court "may set contested cases on written request of any party, or on the court's own motion, with reasonable notice of not less than forty-five days to the parties of a first setting for trial, or by agreement of the parties." See Tex.R.Civ.P. 245.

“The forty-five-day notice provision of Rule 245 is mandatory.”

In re V.J., 02-22-00233-CV (Tex. App. Aug 10, 2023). By consolidating the protective order with the divorce and then immediately severing the Father from the Children’s lives and property despite an agreed continuance fails to abide by this mandatory forty-five day requirement.

1. The initial child custody determinations did not consider the children’s best interests.

On January 16th, 2024, this significant decision was made, effectively removing one parent from the Children’s lives, and introducing instability without any consideration of the Children’s best interests when “the best interest[s] of the child[ren] shall always be the primary consideration in determining conservatorship, possession of, and access to the child[ren].” Id. § 153.002. The fact that the Father requires the residency for his at-home business, and given that such a business would take time to transition to an alternative residency, the DJ Respondent erred in not taking these facts into consideration when “[s]uits affecting the parent-child relationship are ‘intensely fact-driven’ and require courts to balance many factors.” Billisits v. Billisits, No. 03-

C. Issue No. 2

AJ Respondent abused his discretion when rendering temporary orders affecting the parent-child relationship without notice and hearing, allowing the Mother more time to acquire Counsel while prolonging the Realtor's unjustified removal from his home and business, and leaving the Children without an involved parent who provides for them out of the home, disregarding their best interests and emotional well-being entirely.

On January 22nd, DJ Respondent's orders reset, and when Father and Mother made their appearance, the Mother failed to acquire legal representation until just minutes before the scheduled hearing, which delayed the proceedings until February 1st, 2024. This resulted in an Associate Judge's Report being rendered that awarded the mother primary conservatorship of the Children and sole use of the residency once again without any witnesses being called, or evidence being presented by the parties, and once again overlooking the Children's best interests when it has been determined that "[t]he test for abuse of discretion is whether the trial court ruled arbitrarily, unreasonably, without regard to guiding legal principles, or without supporting evidence."

Bocquet v. Herring, 972 S.W.2d 19, 21 (Tex. 1998).

D. Issue No. 3

Both Respondents abused their discretion by playing their respective parts in drafting and then upholding temporary orders that have no basis in fact or law and have taken no consideration to the Children's best interests, which resulted in turning the only life the Children had ever known on its' head.

On February 1st, 2024, the parties attended the second reset hearing, where Counsel began negotiations and drafted an Agreed Associate Judge's Report giving father temporary relief back into the family home until March 1st, 2024App. 120, but keeping the mother as the primary conservator.App. 118. This outcome raised significant questions about the adequacy of Father's Counsel's advocacy on behalf of the children, especially considering no additional facts were presented by the Mother to justify the decision rendered in the challenged Agreed Associate Judge's Report. Given that temporary relief was given to the Father, he signed the agreement and subsequently terminated his legal representation on February 5th, 2024 and filed a notice with the court regarding the termination of his Counsel for ineffective representation.

1. After terminating his representation, Father filed for a motion to reconsider challenging the foundational basis for the agreed report signed on February 1st, 2024.

On February 9th, Father filed an emergency motion to reconsider evidence and to vacate temporary orders with an attached brief explaining the issues. A hearing was not set on this motion until over a month later on March 14th, 2024, as opposing Counsel stated that was her only available timeframe despite not filing any response, objections, or conducting any due diligence between February 9th, 2024, and March 14th, 2024 as the record will show.

2. Father's motion to reconsider evidence and vacate temporary orders was denied by AJ Respondent and evidence was not allowed to be admitted.

On March 14th, 2024, AJ Respondent denied Father's motion for reconsideration after only one witness was called (the Mother) who testified for the sole purpose of collecting attorney's fees, and while providing no evidence or testimony providing any insight into the Children's well-being or best interests. The Father offered several affidavits from his business clients corroborating his claims about needing residency to work from home, which were not admitted into evidence which would have shown his dedication to his work, and Children. Realtor argues that no evidence shows that his removal from the home was in the best interest of the child, and "[b]ecause the evidence does not satisfy the standard set out in section 156.006(b), the trial court abused its discretion by rendering the temporary order that changed 'the designation of the person who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child.' In re Montemayor, No. 04-16-00222-CV (Tex. App. Jun 22, 2016).

3. Father added the refused affidavits to the clerk's record via a notice of judicial review.

The Father filed these affidavits in accordance with his Second Amended Prepatory Notice for Judicial Review filed on March 26, 2024. App. 123, which contains familial backgroundApp. 132, family dynamics and employment historyApp. 133-140, a Statement of Facts,App 141-150.⁵ and his efforts in these matters regarding the zealous advocation for the best interests of his Children.App. 155-157.

⁵ The links in this document have been redacted to protect the parties and minor children.

4. On March 26th, 2024, AJ Respondent rendered Temporary Orders that would remain until the final decree of divorce was signed.

The agreement, executed by all parties and their Counsel on February 1st, 2024, outlined specific obligations what were not met upon the rendition of these orders. The failure to meet the agreement's requirements was prominently addressed during the oral argument on March 14th.⁶ Despite this, the orders, hastily reduced to writing that same day and not conforming to the agreed-upon requirements, were not issued until March 26th, 2024-significantly later than the 20-days stipulated. This resulted in the final orders being issued without the necessary signatures from the Father or his preceding Counsel and still failing to be based on any pertinent facts related to the Children's best interests.

5. The Children's best interests have been starkly overlooked by all parties in the case outside of the Father.

Had just one of the eight factors outlined in the long-dated case of Holly v. Adams 544 S.W.2d 367 (1976) been applied to the decisions made within this case, the trial court would have not erroneously severed an active and loving father from his Children's lives and would not have removed the Father from his residency that he needs to provide for the Children without notice and hearing on multiple occasions.

Throughout these proceedings - the clerk's record will clearly show continuous efforts from the Father to advocate for his Children's best interests, and the lack thereof by Counsel and both Respondents, entitling the Father to immediate relief via mandamus, as his burden to show an abuse of discretion, which is to "show that the trial court acted in an arbitrary or unreasonable manner, or without regard to guiding principles of law." Billisits v. Billisits, No. 03-21-00358-CV, 2023 WL 2191330 (Tex. App.-Austin Feb. 24, 2023) (mem. op.), can be met by simply looking at the face of the clerk's record.

IV.

CONCLUSION

The initial decision by DJ Respondent laid a flawed foundation for the case, rushing into custody and property division without any facts, and affecting all later decisions and disregarding the Children's best interests. AJ Respondent's actions of exacerbating and the drafting of an agreed order by ineffective Counsel merely perpetuated these errors, using the Father's pursuit of relief as leverage. This process effectively excluded a dedicated parent from his children's lives, only to conditionally re-admit him temporarily, while simultaneously allowing the Mother to remove them from their own home as her primary designation has remained throughout these proceedings simply because she alleged family violence that was intentionally frivolous. This cascade of decisions represents a stark abuse of judicial discretion and a failure of legal duty, highlighting the urgent need for rectification to uphold the integrity of the family law system and protect the children's welfare. The benefits of the Father's restoration to the family home and place of business, and the restoration to his daughter's lives outweighs the burden put on the Mother if this petition were to be granted. The Mother has unjustifiably orchestrated the removal of an actively engaged and nurturing parent from the children's daily lives. This action, taken without presenting any substantiating evidence and despite readily available alternative housing options that would allow for minimal disruption to the children's routine, amounts to an unwarranted upheaval of their well-being. Granting this writ of mandamus would be an act of immediate and necessary correction, upholding justice, and the paramount principle of the children's best interest, which has been so abruptly compromised and disregarded by the Respondents and Counsel alike in this case.

PRAYER

Wherefore premises considered, for all the foregoing reasons alleged and briefed herein, Realtor C.D.M. prays that this court grant him mandamus relief and order AJ Respondent to vacate the current temporary orders that have no factual backing, thereby restoring the status quo to the Children's lives, the Realtor's business, and restoring the stability the Children have always known while the case is pending or until the Realtor can have a reasonable amount of time to transition from the family home.

Relator C.D.M. further requests that this court grant him such other relief both general and special, at law or in equity, to which he may show himself to be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

C.D.M.

Relator notes the absence of a court-reported record for this case, significantly hindering the ability to provide a verbatim transcript of proceedings crucial to this mandamus action. Notably, the only witness called during these proceedings was the mother, primarily for securing legal fees for the March 14th motion for reconsideration. This unique circumstance, compounded by the lack of a court reporter, accentuates the need for the Court's detailed review of the attached appendix. This appendix, containing all relevant documents filed in compliance with statutory requirements and unopposed to date, forms the core evidence for the Court's consideration. Despite these procedural anomalies, the Relator believes the submitted documents will sufficiently support the Petition for Writ of Mandamus.

1. Defendant's Information

My name is _____ I am the Defendant in this Case.

The last three numbers of my driver's license number are _____. My driver's license was issued in (State) TEXAS.

Or I do not have a driver's license number.

The last three numbers of my social security number are _____.
Or I do not have a social security number.

2. General DenialTexas Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 92

I enter a general denial.

I request notice of all hearings in this case.

3. Specific Pleas Made Under Penalty of Perjury

Read Texas Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 93 for a list of specific pleas that must be verified or made under penalty of perjury. Ask a lawyer which specific pleas apply to your case.

I make the following specific pleas under penalty of perjury:

The Plaintiff, [REDACTED] intentionally lied about allegations of family violence to the court, as evidenced by the complete absence of any police reports, medical records, or credible witnesses to corroborate such claims. I assert that my personal history is devoid of any such incidents and my record remains unblemished. Please see attached EXHIBIT B.

These unfounded allegations have caused significant undue stress and threaten the well-being of my children and myself. The claim that I have a history of family violence is categorically false and is maliciously designed to obstruct my parental rights and access to my children.

The timing and nature of these allegations suggest a strategic ploy to influence the outcome of concurrent legal proceedings — specifically, an eviction case and our ongoing divorce. It appears these claims were fabricated to leverage an advantage in these matters, rather than to protect any party from harm.

The Plaintiff also requested for joint conservatorship in the divorce and seeks co-parenting, which directly contradicts this order in and of itself.

In light of these considerations, I plead with the court to dismiss the protective order and to take appropriate measures to prevent further unwarranted interference with my family life and living situation, as my children's best interests remains my priority.

4. Affirmative Defenses

Read Texas Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 94 for a list of affirmative defenses. Ask a lawyer which affirmative defenses apply to your case.

Note: An affirmative defense is an independent reason that the Plaintiff should not win the lawsuit. If an affirmative defense is successful, you could win the lawsuit, even if what the Plaintiff says is true. If you file an answer and do not claim an affirmative defense, you may forever give up that defense.

I claim the affirmative defenses checked below:

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> accord and satisfaction | <input type="checkbox"/> estoppel | <input type="checkbox"/> license |
| <input type="checkbox"/> arbitration and award | <input type="checkbox"/> failure of consideration | <input type="checkbox"/> release |

| <input type="checkbox"/> discharge in bankruptcy | <input type="checkbox"/> injury to fellow servant | <input type="checkbox"/> statute of limitations |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> duress | <input type="checkbox"/> laches | <input type="checkbox"/> waiver |

I already paid the debt sued for. I paid $ _____ to _____ on _____ by _____.
(date) (check, cash, etc.)

Write any other details regarding payment of the debt here:

I also claim these additional affirmative defenses:

Abuse of Process: The petitioner has utilized the judicial proceedings as an instrument of malice and personal vendetta, with the primary intent of causing unwarranted harm to my reputation and rights, rather than seeking legitimate redress for a valid legal grievance.

Lack of Evidence: The petitioner has failed to provide any credible evidence, such as police reports, medical documentation, or witness testimony to substantiate the allegations of family violence. My record is clear of any such incidents, underscoring the baseless nature of the allegations.

I reserve the right to file an Amended Defendant's Answer with the Court to plead additional verified pleas, affirmative defenses and claims, cross-claims, or third-party claims, as applicable, after further investigation and discovery.

5. Request for Judgment

I ask that Plaintiff take nothing from this lawsuit. I ask for costs of court. I ask for such other and further relief, at law or in equity, to which I may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Background Report for Case Consolidation

Case Details:

Divorce Case (Cause No. 322-744263-23) in the 322nd District Court of Tarrant County, filed on December 18, 2023.

Protective Order Case (Cause No. 322-744538-23) in the 322nd District Court of Tarrant County.

Reasons for Consolidation:

Interconnected Issues:

The divorce case and the protective order case involve overlapping issues concerning family violence allegations, which are central to the divorce proceedings and directly affect custody and visitation rights. The protective order case includes allegations of family violence, which are also a pivotal point in the divorce case in determining the waiver of the standard waiting period for the divorce.

Consistency in Rulings:

Consolidating the divorce and protective order cases would ensure consistency in the court's findings, particularly regarding any allegations of family violence and their impact on the dissolution of marriage, custody, and visitation rights.

Judicial Economy:

Hearing both cases together would promote judicial economy by avoiding duplication of legal proceedings, as both cases are likely to involve similar witnesses, evidence, and legal arguments.

Claims of False Statements:

There have been claims of false statements and perjury related to the protective order, which could have significant implications for the divorce case. For instance, the claim that the plaintiff intentionally lied about being unable to pay court fees and made false allegations of family violence to gain an advantage in the divorce proceedings suggests that a single judge should hear both matters for a clear understanding of the facts.

Evidence of Misrepresentation and False Statements:

Evidence provided suggests that there have been misrepresentations to the court, including the transfer of funds from the joint account and the plaintiff's interaction with third parties, which could affect both the protective order and the divorce outcome. The protective order – which was based on claims of family violence – are entirely baseless as I have no record of family violence, and no evidence from the Plaintiff has been provided to substantiate these claims.

Landlord-Tenant Relationship:

The eviction case, although not directly related to family law matters, stems from claims and actions that are deeply intertwined with the divorce and protective order cases, suggesting that the alleged family violence and the actions of the plaintiff have been used to justify an eviction that coincides with the timing of the divorce and protective order filings.

Conclusion:

Given the overlapping factual and legal issues in the divorce and protective order cases, consolidation would serve the interests of justice and efficiency. It would ensure that the court has a comprehensive understanding of the intertwined nature of the family's circumstances, which is vital for fair and equitable resolution of these matters. While the eviction case may not be directly consolidated due to jurisdictional differences, it should be considered in context with the other cases to provide a complete picture of the ongoing disputes and to keep the best interests of our children intact.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY, TEXAS

BEFORE THE 322ND COURT

vs.

[REDACTED], Defendant.

CAUSE NO. 322-744538-23

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Comes now Charles Dustin Myers, Defendant in the above-entitled and numbered cause, respectfully requests that the Court grant a continuance in the protective order case, and as grounds therefore would show the following:

1. Family Priorities During Holidays: The recent holiday season and the children's break from school have been my priority. Ensuring their stability and spending quality time with them has been of utmost importance, impacting my ability to prepare adequately for this case.
2. Motion for Consolidation: I have recently filed a motion for consolidation to combine this case with two others due to their intertwined nature. This motion has been accepted by the court but not yet ruled upon by the judge. A decision on this matter could significantly impact the proceedings of this case. The relevant cases that are intertwined are cause numbers: 322-744263-23 (DIVORCE) and JP01-23-E00102017 (EViction).

3. Unfounded Claims in Eviction Suit and Protective Order: Both the eviction suit and the protective order claims are unfounded. The eviction suit lists the violation of the lease as "granddaughter divorced" and prematurely references the protective order as a secondary reason for eviction grounds. Additional time is needed to address these premature and baseless claims. There is no immediate danger to the Plaintiff, or the children – and has never been any incident of family violence that has occurred within our home. Attached is a copy of my criminal history obtained by the Texas Department of Public Safety that highlights my clean record.
4. Time to appropriately answer the divorce: The parent case in the request to consolidate is the divorce, which I have yet to answer due to the concurrent proceedings (eviction suit and protective order) which were both filed due to the claims that I possess a history of family violence, waiving the 60-day period for service and making the timeframe unreasonable – especially considering the lack of communications from the Plaintiffs – to formulate a plan that best suits our children's interests.
5. Lack of Cooperation in Providing Lease Agreement: Despite requests, the Plaintiff has not provided a copy of the lease agreement necessary for my defense. More time is needed to acquire these critical documents, especially given the unlawful nature of the eviction.
6. Potential for Amicable Resolution: Given more time to prepare and the pending decision on the consolidation of cases, there is a potential for a more amicable resolution to be reached. The intertwined nature of the cases suggests that a holistic approach to resolution may be more appropriate and beneficial for all parties involved.

Considering the above reasons, continuity is necessary to ensure a fair and just resolution of this matter. I assure the Court that this request is not for the purpose of delay, but to allow for adequate preparation and the pursuit of justice.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, I, [REDACTED], respectfully request that the Court grant a continuance for the protective order case.

Respectfully submitted,

I ask the Court to Order that I not have to give this information or notice of changes in this information to my spouse. I also ask the Court to keep this information confidential.

12. Property and Debt

Note: It is very important to talk with a lawyer if you or your spouse has a house, land, business, retirement funds, other valuable property or debt. Getting advice from a lawyer now can save you time and money in the long run.

About community property: Texas is a community property state. This means that any new property that either spouse gets from the minute they are married until the minute the judge grants the divorce is probably community property, even if the property is only in one spouse's name. About separate property: Property owned by a spouse before the marriage is that spouse's separate property. In addition, if either spouse receives a gift, an inheritance, or a recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage (not including a recovery for lost wages or medical expenses); it is that spouse's separate property. There are exceptions to these general rules. If you have questions talk with a lawyer.

About retirement: Retirement funds (such as 401k, pension, profit sharing, stock option plans and IRAs) earned by either spouse during the marriage are usually considered to be community property that can be divided by the court. This is true even if you or your spouse has not yet retired.

- If you want the Court to divide retirement funds (other than an IRA), you will need to have the Court sign an additional form, usually called a "Qualified Domestic Relations Order" (QDRO), to make the division effective. You should have the QDRO prepared before you go to court, so the judge can sign it when you finish your divorce. A QDRO form is not included with this divorce set. You may be able to get a sample QDRO form from the employer or retirement fund administrator. If not, you should hire a lawyer to draft the QDRO form.
- If you use the employer or retirement fund administrator's QDRO form, you should still have a lawyer review it to make sure you are not giving up important benefits.

Note: If you and your spouse plan to keep your own retirement funds or do not have retirement funds, you do not need a QDRO.

About debt: A creditor's right to collect a debt is not affected by a divorce decree. So, if the Court orders your spouse to pay a debt (such as a mortgage) that is in both of your names but your spouse doesn't pay it, the creditor can still seek payment from you. Ask a lawyer how to protect yourself in this situation.

12A. Community Property and Debt

If my spouse and I can agree about how to divide the property and debts we got during our marriage, I ask the Court to approve our agreement. If we cannot agree, I ask the Court to divide our community property and debts according to Texas law.

12B. Separate Property

I own the following separate property. I owned this property before I was married or I received this property as a gift or inheritance during my marriage or I received this property as recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage (not including any recovery for lost wages or medical expenses). I ask the Court to confirm this property as my separate property.

COUNTER-PETITION FOR DIVORCE AND COMPREHENSIVE STATEMENT OF CONTEXT

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY, TEXAS
322ND JUDICIAL DISTRICT

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Plaintiff,

vs.
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Defendant.

COUNTER-PETITION FOR DIVORCE AND COMPREHENSIVE STATEMENT OF CONTEXT

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

I, [REDACTED] the Defendant in the above-captioned case, submit this Counter-Petition for Divorce and Comprehensive Statement of Context in response to the Original Petition for Divorce filed by [REDACTED] the Plaintiff. This document addresses the inaccuracies in the Plaintiff's petition, provides a detailed account of the situation, and outlines the evidence I am prepared to present to the Court.

I. OVERVIEW AND CONTEXT

This divorce is intertwined with two additional legal proceedings - an eviction suit (Case No. JP01-23-E00102017) and a protective order (Case No. 322-744538-23), both of which are deeply entangled with the divorce case (Case No. 322-744263-23).

The significant third-party influence exerted by individuals named [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as well as our landlord – her Grandmother – who lives next door to us - has critically impacted the Plaintiff's decisions and actions in our marital matters and the ongoing divorce proceedings. Notably, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] a family member, has played an active and concerning role in the process – claiming to be her legal representative yet possessing no license to practice law in the state of Texas.

1. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Influence:

I possess extensive text and call logs that unequivocally demonstrate the Plaintiff's prioritization of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] over our family obligations and commitments. These interactions, which have been meticulously logged and analyzed, reveal a consistent pattern where the Plaintiff has chosen to allocate a significant amount of her time and attention to these individuals, even amidst our divorce proceedings. It wasn't until the discovery and subsequent discussion of these interactions that lead to the situation escalating. It is my firm belief that the protective order was filed in an attempt to escape responsibility rather than to seek protection, as we have been co-habiting throughout this process, and joint conservatorship was requested on the original divorce petition.

2. [REDACTED] Branthoover's Role:

[REDACTED] Branthoover's involvement has escalated beyond mere influence to active participation in the legal aspects of our divorce. He has notably assisted the Plaintiff in preparing and filing divorce papers.

Critically, under [REDACTED] advice, the Plaintiff withdrew $1,600 from our joint bank account without my authorization. This unauthorized transaction led to a dire financial situation, with a deficit of $800 in our account, resulting in bounced bills and considerable strain on my business operations.

This act of financial maneuvering, advised and facilitated by [REDACTED] not only infringed upon our mutual financial responsibilities but also breached the trust inherent in our joint financial management. It underscores the extent of third-party involvement in our personal and legal affairs.

3. Communication Breakdown:

Throughout these developments, the Plaintiff has consistently failed to communicate with me about these significant third-party influences and their implications on our divorce and family dynamics. This lack of communication has been a major contributing factor to the misunderstandings and the subsequent escalation of conflict between us.

The involvement of these third parties, particularly the actions taken by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] have not only influenced the Plaintiff's decisions but also actively interfered with our joint financial integrity and the legal process. This has added layers of complexity to an already challenging situation and has necessitated the presentation of this comprehensive account in the interest of transparency and fairness in these proceedings.

4. Deterioration of Parental Responsibility

Since the announcement of our divorce on December 1st, 2023, there has been a noticeable and concerning shift in [REDACTED] parenting responsibilities and her involvement in our children's lives. Prior to this date, [REDACTED] was an engaged and active parent. However, since the announcement, her day-to-day interactions with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have noticeably deteriorated. This change is not only alarming but also detrimental to the well-being and emotional stability of our children.

[REDACTED] has increasingly prioritized her personal interests, specifically her interactions with friends, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] over her responsibilities as a mother. It has been observed and documented that she spends an excessive amount of time, estimated to be up to 24 hours per week, visiting these friends. This extensive time spent away from home has not only reduced her physical presence in our children's lives but also impacted her emotional availability to them.

More concerning is the complete lack of effort on [REDACTED] part to communicate effectively about the children's needs, their daily routines, and their emotional well-being since the divorce announcement. This breakdown in communication is critical, as co-parenting effectively is paramount for the children's adjustment to the changes in our family structure. The inability or unwillingness to engage in meaningful dialogue regarding our children's care is not in their best interest and is counterproductive to their needs during this challenging time.

5. Contradicting and False Statements

Throughout the ongoing divorce proceedings, there have been several instances of contradictory and demonstrably false statements made by [REDACTED] which have significantly complicated and distorted the case. A critical point of contention is [REDACTED] claim regarding her inability to pay, which is incongruent with the financial facts presented. Additionally, her request for the waiver of the standard 60-day waiting period for divorce, citing an alleged order that found I had committed family violence, is entirely baseless and untrue.

There is no evidence or record to substantiate claims of family violence in our marriage. In fact, this assertion directly contradicts my clean record and consistent history of being a caring and non-violent partner and father. The accusation appears to be a strategic move to gain an unfair advantage in the divorce proceedings.

Furthermore, [REDACTED] actions in filing a protective order, followed by the initiation of an eviction process, appear to be coordinated attempts to remove me from our family home. Notably, the eviction notice cited the protective order as a reason, even though the protective order had not been filed at the time of the eviction notice. This sequence of events points towards a premeditated strategy to unfairly influence the custody and property aspects of our divorce.

Given these concerning developments, it is imperative that this counter petition replace the original. This counter-petition is not just a necessary step to address the false allegations and contradicting statements made by [REDACTED] but also a crucial measure to ensure a fair and equitable trial, and to correct the inaccuracies made by [REDACTED] on the original petition. It is essential to have the appropriate amount of time and a factual basis for the proceedings to ensure that any decisions made, particularly those affecting our children's future and well-being, are based on truth and justice, rather than unfounded allegations. This approach will also facilitate a smoother and more amicable transition for all parties involved, especially for our children, who are of utmost importance in this process.

II. EVIDENCE TO BE PRESENTED

1. Text Message Evidence:

I will present text interactions between myself and the Plaintiff that show my attempts to work towards a resolution and her avoidance of communication and accountability.

2. Data Analysis and Phone/Text Logs:

I have prepared charts and graphs created from our joint account's text and phone call logs. These will illustrate the extreme levels of interaction the Plaintiff had with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] highlighting her priorities outside of our marriage. This priority in her friends has remained consistent - even throughout the divorce proceedings.

3. No History of Family Violence:

I will present my criminal record from the Texas Department of Public Safety, proving the absence of any history of family violence.

4. Bank Statements and Financial Transactions:

Evidence of bank transactions will demonstrate financial maneuverings by the Plaintiff, advised by [REDACTED] affecting our joint account.

5. Eviction Notice and Protective Order Claims:

I have the eviction notice served to me, which was later voided, and evidence related to the protective order, demonstrating the misuse of legal processes to influence our divorce and custody proceedings.

III. CHILDREN'S WELFARE AND FAMILY STABILITY

The children's welfare remains my primary concern. The Plaintiff's actions, influenced by third parties and her unfounded claims, threaten our children's stability and well-being. I advocate for maintaining the standard 60-day waiting period for the divorce to provide our children with a stable and gradual transition.

Since the divorce announcement, I have remained an active role in my children's lives, finding activities for us to do together due to their time off from school. Despite all inclusion efforts – [REDACTED] has declined to join us on these activities – something the children don't understand and have taken notice to. [REDACTED] on the other hand, has been extremely short with the children, impatient, and has kept her priorities in line with her friends.

IV. PROPOSAL FOR INTERIM CUSTODY ARRANGEMENT

Considering the current complexities surrounding our divorce proceedings, and with the paramount goal of ensuring the best interests and minimal disruption to our children's lives, I propose the following interim custody arrangement:

1. Full Custody Arrangement

I propose to take on full custody of our children, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. This decision is motivated by the need to provide them with a stable and consistent environment, especially during this transitional phase of our family's life. My commitment to their day-to-day needs, emotional well-being, and continued growth has been and will remain unwavering.

2. Co-Habitation in Current Family Home:

Recognizing the importance of maintaining a sense of normalcy for our children, I suggest that we continue to cohabit in our current family home. This arrangement will prevent any immediate upheaval in the children's living environment, allowing them to retain their sense of security and familiarity amidst the ongoing changes, and will afford [REDACTED] the opportunity to find full-time stable employment, and allow me to continue making rent payments to her grandmother, our landlord. This is in the best interest of all parties involved.

3. Transition to a New Home

I am planning to move out of my current family home with the children, but only when a suitable and equally accommodating residence is secured. The aim is to ensure this new home is near our current location, thus allowing the children to remain in their current school and maintain their usual routines and social connections.

4. Active Roles for Both Parents

It is imperative that both [REDACTED] and I continue to play active roles in our children's lives. The proposed arrangement is designed to facilitate this by ensuring that the children have regular and consistent access to both parents. This continued parental presence will be crucial in minimizing the emotional and psychological impact of our separation on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

Mitigating Potential Damage: The current petition, as it stands, poses a significant risk of causing disruption and potential harm to our children's well-being.

by abruptly altering their living situation and limiting their access to one parent. My proposal aims to mitigate this damage by providing a more balanced and thoughtful approach to the transition, one that prioritizes the emotional and psychological health of our children above all else.

Flexibility and Cooperation: This proposal is made with a spirit of flexibility and cooperation, understanding that the situation may evolve as we navigate this process. I am open to discussions and modifications to this plan, if they serve the best interests of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

Professional Support if Needed: To aid in this transition and to ensure that the emotional needs of our children are being met, I also propose that we engage the services of a child psychologist or a family counselor. This professional can provide support to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], helping them to understand and adapt to the changes in their family dynamics.

Regular Review and Adjustment of the Arrangement: I propose that this interim custody arrangement be subject to regular review, with the possibility of adjustments based on the evolving needs of our children and our family situation. This will ensure that the arrangement remains relevant and beneficial for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

V. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, premises considered, I respectfully request that the Court consider this Counter-Petition for Divorce with due diligence. My earnest prayer is for a fair and just resolution that corrects the inaccuracies in the original petition and uncovers the true nature of the events leading to the divorce announcement. It is vital that these matters are resolved amicably, prioritizing the best interests of our children, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. I seek a fair outcome that recognizes the complexities of our situation and promotes a stable, nurturing environment for our family moving forward.

Respectfully submitted,

La declaración hecha en conformidad con esta sección tiene que ser 1) por escrito, 2) firmado por la persona declarando y indique ser cierto bajo pena de perjurio y 3) substancialmente el documento anterior.

STATEMENT

I, [REDACTED] submit this unsworn declaration to recount the events since December 1st, 2023, when my wife, [REDACTED] unexpectedly declared her wish for a divorce. The announcement was not only ill-timed but also perplexing in its lack of substantiated reasoning or opportunity for reconciliation.

At noon that day, [REDACTED] cited 'the way I talk to her' as her rationale for the divorce. Despite her evolving reasons, I extended apologies and exhaustively sought resolution, yet my every attempt to discuss our daughters' future and our family's welfare was met with hostility or outright [REDACTED] by [REDACTED]

The abruptness of Morgan's hostility compelled me to seek deeper insight. Upon examining our AT&T records, I found an alarmingly high volume of communication between [REDACTED] and two individuals: [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. These findings were troubling, especially given the children's scant interaction with [REDACTED] family despite [REDACTED] extensive evening visits. When presented with this evidence, [REDACTED] downplayed its significance and persisted in her communications and visits, placing them above resolving our marital issues.

After sharing my concerns with her grandparents, our landlords, the dynamics shifted abruptly. Within days, [REDACTED] began to systematically exclude me from the family narrative surrounding the divorce.

The situation intensified on December 14th, 2023, with the involvement of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] her mother's boyfriend. [REDACTED] contacted me, purporting to mediate our divorce impartially, yet his subsequent actions—advising [REDACTED] facilitating a transfer of funds from our account to his PayPal, and overdrawn our joint account—belied his stated intentions. This financial maneuvering, coupled with [REDACTED] claim that [REDACTED] is "his client," despite lacking a legal license in Texas, underscores a deceitful manipulation of the facts.

[REDACTED] subsequent visit to [REDACTED] in Oklahoma for the divorce petition preparation and the acquisition of a second phone coincided with a conspicuous halt in her communications with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as evidenced in the AT&T records.

On December 17th, 2023, I was served an eviction notice by [REDACTED] grandmother—a notice that cited a divorce and a protective order not yet filed, revealing a preconceived strategy to undermine my paternal rights and disrupt our daughters' stability, particularly before the Christmas season.

The subsequent protective order filed on December 22nd, 2023, and the divorce petition, paint a unilateral narrative of events. Throughout this ordeal, [REDACTED] has actively excluded me from our daughters' lives and neglected to pursue employment or engage in any dialogue regarding their future.

STATEMENT

Conversely, I have remained steadfast in my parental duties, inviting [REDACTED] to participate in our daughters' lives, only to be rebuffed at every turn. Her behavior and legal actions, which starkly contradict her claims of fear, suggest an attempt to evade accountability rather than protect herself from any purported threat.

The chain of events illustrates a concerted effort by [REDACTED] and her family to extricate me from our home, leveraging unfounded legal allegations and an eviction suit without considering the facts or the impact on our daughters.

It is my firm belief that [REDACTED] actions are self-serving, aimed at avoiding responsibility for her actions rather than safeguarding our children. Hence, I implore this court to recognize the inconsistencies in [REDACTED] claims and to view subsequent allegations with a discerning eye, considering their strategic nature.

In conclusion, I respectfully request the court to deny the protective order and impose sanctions on [REDACTED] for his role in the marital discord that has ensued since the announcement. It is essential for our daughters' stability and well-being that the full truth of this matter be brought to light and considered in these proceedings.

Cause No. 322-744263-23

Petitioner,

v.

Emergency Motion to Reconsider
Evidence and to Vacate Temporary Orders

[REDACTED],

Respondent

This motion urgently calls for the Court's intervention to address critical procedural missteps in the matter of cause# 322-744263-23, aiming to reinstate the safety and stability that our children rightfully deserve until due process and all facts of the case can be considered by the Court. I am seeking immediate court intervention to correct procedural errors and address the misuse of the legal system by the Petitioner. This motion highlights the significant impact of the Petitioner's actions on our children's welfare and my unjust removal from our home based on frivolous claims.

In pursuit of justice and the well-being of the children at heart, I respectfully request that the Court reconsider all details, weighing the comprehensive scenario presented herein along with the supporting evidence. I am committed to the highest interests of my children and family, striving to resolve these matters efficiently and avoid unnecessary judicial expenditure. This document seeks to unveil the Petitioner's deliberate misrepresentation and misuse of the legal system, which has gravely disrupted our children's stability and emotional well-being by weaponizing the court system.

² Between December 14th, 2023, and December 22nd, 2023, the Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order, a Divorce Petition, a Protective Order, and instigated an Eviction suit.

NATURE OF SUITS AND THIRD-PARTY INFLUENCE

1. On December 1st, 2023, Petitioner announced the divorce with no plan in place for the children, no sign of marital discord leading up to this point to warrant such a decision, and no desire for counseling, communication, and no consideration for the time of year.
2. Between December 1st, 2023, and December 12th, 2023, all efforts are exhausted in an attempt to communicate with the Petitioner which lead to the subsequent discovery of an alarming volume of text messages that were directed towards two individuals – ■■■■■ and ■■■■■ showing a significant level of influence.³
3. On December 12th, 2023, After the discovery of the communications between these two individuals combined with the irrational behavior from the Petitioner during such a critical time of year, I reached out to the Petitioner's grandfather via text message.⁴
4. On December 13th, 2023, Petitioner states she will be going to talk to her Grandparents alone. This conversation lasts between 9:55 and 1:30 A.M.
5. On December 14th, 2023, Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order. This order was denied by the court.
6. On December 15th, 2023, Petitioner involves her family into the situation. Particularly, ■■■■■ became involved. He is the boyfriend of the Petitioner's Mother. Shortly thereafter, I received a notice from our joint bank account stating that $1,576 had just been withdrawn. As our bank statement for December 2023 will demonstrate – the transaction record shows the funds being transferred directly to Mr. ■■■■■ PayPal account.⁵

³ See attached EXHIBIT A.1 – A true and accurate copy of the AT&T text logs filtered by relevant parties. Parties include Meme, Papaw, ■■■■■ and ■■■■■ Dates and times surrounding the case will corroborate with other evidence presented herein. See page 456 – 458.

⁴ See attached EXHIBIT A.2 – A true and accurate copy of the referenced text message in paragraph 3.

⁵ See attached EXHIBIT A.3 – The true and accurate bank statement reflecting the transaction referenced in paragraph 6.

7. On December 16th, 2023, Petitioner's transaction under the advice of Mr. [REDACTED] lead to our joint bank account becoming $-800 overdrawn. I requested from Mr. [REDACTED] via text message that he needs to return the funds immediately, where he subsequently admits to this transaction having occurred.⁶
8. On December 17th, 2023, Petitioner's grandmother, [REDACTED] initiates an Eviction Suit by serving me an eviction notice around 11:00 AM CST.
9. On December 18th, 2023 – Petitioner writes “VOID” on the Eviction Notice, and physically tears it in half.⁷
10. On December 19th, 2023, Mr. [REDACTED] uses intimidation tactics by impersonating an attorney despite having no license to practice law in the State of Texas.⁸
11. On December 27th, 2023, I am served the Divorce Papers by the Constable.
12. On December 28th, 2023, I am served the Protective Order, followed by the Eviction shortly thereafter by the Constable.

The Protective Order (Show Cause) hearing was set for January 16th, 2024, and the Eviction hearing for January 17th, 2024.

The documented timeline of events, particularly during the holiday season, underscores a notable disregard for our children's welfare. This has enabled the Petitioner to inappropriately utilize the judicial system to disrupt the stable environment our children have known, influenced significantly by third-party actions as previously detailed. The forthcoming section of this motion will highlight the specific frivolous claims and false statements found within each filing initiated by the Petitioner.

⁶ See attached EXHIBIT A.4 – Overdrawn account notice from PNC bank on December 16th, 2023.

⁷ See attached EXHIBIT A.5 – The physically torn and voided Eviction notice served on December 17th, 2023.

⁸ See attached EXHIBIT A.6 – Mr. [REDACTED] refers to Petitioner as “his client” while having no license in law.

FRIVOLOUS CLAIMS AND FALSE STATEMENTS

A. EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. As mentioned above, Petitioner filed for an Emergency Protective Order on December 14th, 2023. This protective order was denied by the courts.
2. Due to the fact this order was not granted by the court, one could conclude that there was not a clear and present danger of family violence.¹

B. THE DIVORCE PETITION

1. Petition was filed on 2024-12-18 under an Affidavit of Inability to pay.²
2. The Petitioner's action of filing for divorce under an Affidavit of Inability to pay three days after transferring $1,576 to herself starkly contravenes the mandates set forth in Chapter 10, Section 10.001 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. This section asserts that each claim or legal contention must be warranted by existing law or a nonfrivolous argument for the modification of existing law or the establishment of new law, and that each factual contention has or is likely to have evidentiary support after further investigation or discovery³.
3. The Petitioner violated Chapter 10, Section 10.001 a second time within the same document when she intentionally elected to waive the 60-day waiting period claiming to have an active protective order against me that found family violence had occurred during our marriage⁴ despite being denied such an order just five days prior on December 14th, 2023.
5. The final page of the Divorce Petition for service to the Office of the Attorney General was left unsigned by the Petitioner.

² See attached EXHIBIT B.1 – A True and Accurate copy of the Divorce Petition for all references made in regard to this document.

³ CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE, TITLE 2, SUBTITLE A, CHAPTER 10, Sec. 10.001.

⁴ TEXAS FAMILY CODE, Sec. 6.405 – The petitioner shall attach to the petition a copy of each order described by Subsection (a)(1). No such order, as required, was attached to the divorce petition, because no such order exists.

C. EVICTION SUIT

1. The suit was unlawful by nature⁵, as the grounds for eviction were based on family status, referencing the divorce as well as a protective order that had been denied on December 14th, 2023. The suit was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction on January 17th, 2024.⁶

D. PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. This suit was the second attempt by the Petitioner to have me removed from the home, which ultimately succeeded.
2. The claims within this suit mentioned sexually aggressive comments and threatening behavior. These allegations are materially false, as the Petitioner possesses no evidence, and has presented no evidence in relation to these claims since the initiation of the suit. Despite this, as video and image evidence will show once a fair trial date is set, the Petitioner and I continued to maintain stability at our family home and preserved the sense of normalcy that our daughters have been accustomed to their entire lives up until January 16th, 2024.

The Court's decision to remove me from my home and my children's lives on January 16th, 2024, albeit preliminary and unjustified, bypassed the safeguarding of the children's emotional, psychological, and physical well-being. This oversight is compounded by the Petitioner's actions. The juxtaposition of the Court's decision against the backdrop of the Petitioner's inattention to the children's needs illuminates a disconcerting disregard for the paramount principle that custody determinations should primarily serve the children's best interests. The final section of this motion will highlight the procedural aspects of the events unfolding between the dates of January 16th, 2024, and February 1st, 2024, and pray the court will rectify this situation by restoring the stability to our family by vacating the current temporary orders that are in place until a proper investigation can be completed by the courts.

⁵ TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE – RULE 6 – Suits initiated on a Sunday are invalid.

⁶ See attached EXHIBIT B.2 – A true and accurate copy of the Eviction Dismissal.

THE PROTECTIVE ORDER HEARINGS

1. In preparation for the Protective Order hearing on January 16th, 2024, I filed with the Court an answer to the Protective Order on January 2nd, 2024 as well as two motions – a motion to consolidate the divorce with the protective order, filed on January 4th, 2024, as well as a motion of continuance, filed on January 8th, 2024 for the purpose to acquire counsel due to the complex nature of the case.¹ All three filings were accepted by the court.
2. On January 16th, 2024, both parties sought additional time to secure legal representation. Despite not reviewing any evidence, witness testimonies, or documents related to the motions, and acknowledging the denial of a previous Emergency Protective Order, the court mandated my departure from our home within four hours. This decision, unexpectedly made, awarded custody to the Petitioner, overlooking my concerns about the adverse effects on our children and my work from home. This ruling, which both parties did not sign, set the case to resume on January 22nd, 2024, to allow time for obtaining counsel.²
3. Following the court's directive, I relocated to my father's residence in Flower Mound until the subsequent hearing. During this interval, the Petitioner did not take the initiative to have the children call once and did not provide any information as to how they were doing, showcasing her lack of empathy and concern for our children's well-being and stability. After incurring substantial expenses to secure representation, I detailed my case and concerns to my attorney, preparing for the next court appearance.
4. On January 22nd, 2024, the Petitioner chose to seek legal representation just minutes before the hearing was due to start, indicating a disregard for the process. My lawyer recommended agreeing to a continuance, thereby extending the period I couldn't work and impacting our established family dynamics. This resulted in a third hearing being set for February 1st, coinciding with my birthday, and a second rendition being ordered.³

¹ See attached EXHIBIT C.1 – A true and accurate copies of all referenced filings in paragraph 1.

² See attached EXHIBIT C.2 – A true and accurate copy of the unsigned rendition ordered on January 16th, 2024.

³ See attached EXHIBIT C.3 – A true and accurate copy of the second rendition ordered on January 22nd, 2024.

5. On February 1st, 2024, during the third hearing, the substantive issues I had raised were not addressed, nor was there any exchange of evidence between our legal representatives. Despite the focus of the hearing supposed to be on the protective order, the discussions veered into custody and child support matters. My lawyer presented the sole option of a temporary return to the family home for 30 days with expanded visitation rights, coupled with a child support obligation starting in April. This outcome, which diverged significantly from the case's core issues, compelled me to reconsider my legal representation. Consequently, I decided to terminate my attorney's services and embarked on drafting this motion myself, aiming to bring the court's attention back to the pivotal elements of the case that had thus far been neglected while able to legally reside in my home.

CONCLUSION AND PRAYER

In conclusion, this motion has laid bare the stark realities and procedural aberrations that have marred the essence of justice and due process in the matter of Cause No. 322-744263-23. Through the course of these proceedings, it has become abundantly clear that the actions taken by the Petitioner, [REDACTED], have not only disregarded the welfare and best interests of our children but have also illuminated her unfitness as a parent. Her actions speak to a pattern of deceit, manipulation, and an unsettling willingness to leverage the judicial system for personal vendettas, all at the expense of the emotional and psychological well-being of our children.

The court, in its decisions, inadvertently facilitated this troubling trajectory by removing me, [REDACTED], from the lives of our children based on unsubstantiated claims and without due consideration of my role as a devoted and stable parent. This oversight has not only disrupted the lives of our children but has also significantly impaired my ability to provide for them, casting a long shadow over their future stability and welfare.

Moreover, the conduct of my Counsel involved has further compounded these issues, demonstrating a distressing disregard for the intricate dynamics and facts of this case. This has culminated in a situation where the paramount importance of the children's best interests and the fundamental principles of fairness and justice have been overshadowed by procedural missteps and a lack of thorough investigation into the Petitioner's fitness as a parent.

Therefore, it is with a heavy hearted yet unwavering resolve that I implore the Court to take immediate and decisive action to rectify these wrongs. Specifically, I respectfully request the Court to:

1. Vacate the existing temporary orders that unjustly removed me from my home and separated me from my children, restoring the status quo ante until a thorough and unbiased evaluation of the facts can be conducted, as the Texas Constitution requires. If left as it stands, these orders will further compound the issues at hand, and will exacerbate the chaos introduced into the children's lives.
2. Set a fair hearing date to delve into the substantive issues at hand, ensuring that all parties are given an equitable opportunity to present their case and that the best interests of our children are placed at the forefront of all considerations.
3. Scrutinize any response or new claims from the Petitioner or her counsel with the utmost diligence, given the established pattern of deceitful and manipulative behavior exhibited by the Petitioner throughout these proceedings.
4. Consider awarding me full custody of our children, ensuring their continued access to a stable, nurturing environment, and the consistent provision of their needs, which I am fully committed to upholding. Furthermore, in alignment with my enduring belief in the importance of both parents in the lives of our children, I pledge to facilitate and encourage a healthy, constructive relationship between the children and their mother, provided she demonstrates a genuine commitment to their well-being and stability.
5. In seeking these remedies, I do so not out of vindictiveness but from a place of deep concern for the welfare of our children and a steadfast belief in the principles of justice and fairness. Despite the pain and turmoil of these proceedings, my ultimate desire is for peace and the best possible outcome for all parties involved, most importantly, our children. It is my sincere hope that the Court will recognize the gravity of the situation and act in a manner that prioritizes the well-being of our children, ensuring their return to a life marked by stability and love.

I affirm under penalty of perjury that all claims herein are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Respectfully submitted on this 9th day of February 2024,

IN THE 322nd DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY
STATE OF TEXAS

[REDACTED],

Cause No. 322-744263-23

Petitioner,

v.

[REDACTED],

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGEMENT

Respondent

Pursuant to *Rule 166a of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure*¹, the Respondent, [REDACTED] [REDACTED], firmly seeks a partial Summary Judgment in regard to the upcoming hearing scheduled for March 14th, 2024. He categorically asserts that the evidence on file with the Court definitively demonstrates there is no genuine issue as to any material fact related to the allegations against him which have led to his unwarranted removal from his home, significantly disrupted his business operations, and unjustly granted the Petitioner full custody of their children and possession of the family home on a temporary basis.

The Respondent has meticulously and persistently contested the baseless allegations of family violence that have unjustly prejudiced the custody resolution to the detriment of the children's interests. The absence of substantive evidence supporting these claims has been made clear through detailed submissions.² This unwarranted influence on custody

² Submissions on record filed by the Respondent: Motion of Continuance (granted), Motion of Consolidation (granted), Protective Order Answer (ignored), Counter Petition for Divorce (ignored), Motion of Withdrawal for Attorney (granted), Emergency Motion of Reconsideration of Evidence and to Vacate Temporary Orders (Scheduled for March 14th, 2024). See attached EXHIBIT A.

arrangements negate the principles of fairness and due process. The subsequent dismissal of the Protective Order suit not only vindicates the Respondent but also invalidates the current custody orders, revealing that the initial award of custody was grounded solely in unsubstantiated claims of family violence.³

BACKGROUND

The documents on record filed by the Respondent, by virtue of their acceptance, inherently meet the threshold for self-authentication, thereby bolstering the legal foundation for the requested partial Summary Judgment. Detailed herewith are the enumerated facts underpinning this motion:

1. On December 14th, 2023, the Petitioner sought an EX-PARTE Order of Protection from the Court, which was judiciously denied, affirming the absence of immediate threat or harm that warranted such an extraordinary measure. Undeterred by this judicial determination, the Petitioner proceeded to file for divorce on December 18th, 2023, misleadingly alleging the existence of an active Order of Protection against the Respondent. This deliberate misrepresentation constitutes not merely an attempt to skew the legal process in the Petitioner's favor but represents a flagrant abuse of the judicial system designed to secure an undue advantage in the divorce proceedings, which has ultimately been successful.
2. On December 22nd, 2023, the Petitioner initiated a subsequent application for a Protective Order, forming the cornerstone of litigation since the initial hearing on January 16th, 2024.
3. On January 16th, 2024, the Court rendered Temporary Orders which required the Respondent to vacate his family home and give up custody of his children on the presumption of family violence. The Court's decision did not meet the statutory requirements of the Texas Family Code, Sec. 6.502.⁴

³ The non-suit of the protective order entitles the Respondent to this Partial Summary Judgement as a matter of law, as there is now no genuine dispute over the baselessness of the allegations made against him which are the foundation of the current temporary orders in place.

⁴ Sec. 6.502 mandates that a Court may make such a decision while a suit for dissolution of a marriage is pending and on the motion of a party or on the court's own motion after notice and hearing. No hearing took place, and no reasonable notice was given prior to the decision rendered on January 16th, 2024.

4. On January 22nd, 2024, before the start of the reset hearing, the Petitioner acquired legal counsel at the last minute, delaying the case further until the reset date of February 1st, 2024.
5. On February 1st, 2024, both parties entered into an agreement which allowed the respondent back into the home on a temporary basis, yet still awarded the Petitioner with full custody of the children. The Respondent was given 30 days per the agreement to remain in the home. Despite having the ability to stay next door, and after dropping the Protective Suit that initiated and are the foundation for this agreement, the Petitioner chose to stay with her friend 9 miles away and remove the children from their stable environment.
6. On February 5th, 2024, the Respondent discharged his Legal Counsel for failure to address any of the issues mentioned herewith, and for failure to diligently represent the Respondent, as no genuine effort was made to make the court aware of these errors. The Protective Order suit was non-suited on this day, invalidating the current agreement, and requiring by law that the Court reset the case back to the status quo ante until a fair discovery process can be conducted on relevant matters to the divorce proceeding, and restoring order back into the lives of the Respondent and his Children.
7. The Petitioner's decision to reside outside the family home, despite alternatives that would minimize disruption during this transitional period, is a deliberate choice. This choice, made independently, should not facilitate the continuation of unfounded claims that have since been dismissed. Such actions have unduly influenced the living arrangements and well-being of the children at the heart of this case.
8. The Respondent explicitly refrains from pursuing any sanctions or penalties against the Petitioner, emphasizing instead a heartfelt plea for a reasonable transition period. This adjustment period is advocated as crucial for safeguarding the welfare of his children, himself, and the Petitioner, ensuring their collective long-term well-being. Furthermore, the Respondent underscores that the prevailing custody determinations were unjustly predicated on unsubstantiated allegations of family violence—a point underscored by the unequivocal dismissal of the Protective Order, which confirms the absence of any contested material facts.

LEGAL BASIS

The legal foundation for this Partial Summary Judgment is firmly rooted in the principles and mandates of the law, notably where the current temporary orders are predicated on unsubstantiated claims of family violence, for which no concrete evidence has been presented. This lack of evidence fundamentally challenges the integrity and validity of the orders affecting the lives and welfare of the children involved. The necessity for the court to vacate these orders and revert to the status quo ante is underscored by the following critical legal arguments:

1 . Misalignment with Texas Family Code Sec. 105.001:

1.1 The orders issued on January 16th, 2024, and continued on January 22nd, 2024, starkly conflict with Texas Family Code Sec. 105.001, which unequivocally necessitates notice and a hearing prior to the issuance of such orders. This statute ensures that parties are given a fair opportunity to be heard, a fundamental aspect of due process, which was conspicuously absent in this case.

2. Contravention of Texas Family Code Sec. 105.005:

2.1 The initial rendering of temporary orders on January 16th, 2024, did not adhere to Texas Family Code Sec. 105.005, requiring that court's findings be grounded in a preponderance of the evidence before making any child custody determination affecting the parent-child relationship.

2.2 The absence of evidence from the Petitioner, juxtaposed with the disregard for the Respondent's timely submissions, underscores a significant deviation from this legal requirement.

3. Violation of Texas Family Code Sec. 153.002:

3.1 The proceedings failed to prioritize "The best interest of the child," as mandated by Texas Family Code Sec. 153.002. This principle, deemed paramount in determining issues of conservatorship, possession, and access, was overlooked.

3.2 The Respondent's work-from-home situation and the need for a reasonable transition period to maintain his pivotal role in his children's lives were disregarded, further exacerbating the impact of the Petitioner's actions and the court's decisions on the children's stability and well-being.

4. Equal Opportunity and Fair Hearing (Sec. 152.205 & Sec. 105.003):

4.1 The Texas Family Code Sec. 152.205 and Sec. 105.003 enshrine the necessity for equitable procedural rights, mandating that all parties are granted a fair opportunity for notification and a meaningful hearing. The Respondent's ability to engage fully in the hearing process and to present a comprehensive defense was significantly impeded, a deviation from the due process envisaged by these statutes. Consequently, the temporary orders issued lack the foundational fairness that is central to the justice system and contravene the legal safeguards intended to ensure balanced participation by all parties in family law proceedings.

5. Managing Conservatorship Considerations (Sec. 153.005 & Sec. 153.007):

5.1 In deliberations of conservatorship, Texas Family Code Sec. 153.005 obligates the court to deliberate thoroughly on the child's best interest, including the living circumstances and stability provided by the parents. Additionally, Sec. 153.007 advocates for the establishment of a mutually agreed parenting plan, prioritizing the child's welfare and the continuity of their established routine. The current custodial provisions do not correspond with a collaboratively designed parenting plan that satisfies these essential criteria. Given the disproven allegations of family violence and the unnecessary protective measures imposed during this period of change, it is imperative for the Court to rescind these provisional measures. The immediate restoration of the status quo ante is crucial to uphold the children's best interest, allowing for a planned and considerate period of adjustment that acknowledges the absence of any immediate risk or harm to their well-being and without disruption to the Respondent's business operations at-home.

6. Rules of Dispositions for Family Law Cases – (Tarrant County Rules):

6.1 The provisions under Rule 4.02: Trial Procedures of the Tarrant Family Rules, specifically Part 4 concerning the disposition of family law cases, have been notably contravened in the ongoing proceedings of the. This rule

STATEMENTS OF FACT

Below are the enumerated statements of fact with no genuine dispute of material fact that entitle the Respondent to this Partial Summary Judgement:

1. The Petitioner has not provided any evidence of Family Violence.⁶ These claims unjustly removed the Respondent from his home starting on January 16th, 2024 and significantly impaired his at-home business operations, and are the basis for the current custodial arrangements which are unlawful and founded on false claims.⁷
2. No basis exists for the current arrangements, as the Court has not considered the best interests of the children throughout this case, but rather has operated solely on the accusations of family violence, which are now non-suited.⁸
3. The deadline approaching March 1st to vacate, and the current custodial arrangements are void of any lawful basis. Any custodial arrangements are required to consider the best interests of the children involved.
4. Respondent's parenting plan has been overlooked by the Court, filed January 6th, 2024.⁹
5. The Court's basis for conservatorship was based solely on the claims of Family Violence, which are now void.
6. The respondent is entitled to this Partial Summary Judgement as a matter of law, which will rightfully restore the status quo ante given no genuine dispute of material fact exists regarding family violence, which are the basis for the ongoing and current orders.

⁶ There exist no evidence supporting family violence on record, nullifying any custodial arrangements based on these foundational claims alone.

⁷ See attached EXHIBIT B.

⁹ See attached EXHIBIT D, filed January 6th, 2024, which better serve the children's best interests.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, [REDACTED], the Respondent herein, respectfully requests this Honorable Court to:

1. Annul the current temporary custody and visitation arrangements premised on allegations now proven to be baseless, taking into account the critical urgency imposed by the Respondent's work-from-home requirements and the ongoing detriment to his familial relationships.
2. Recognize that the initial accusations of family violence, which underpinned the imposition of these temporary measures, were not substantiated by credible evidence. This failure has unjustly prejudiced the Respondent, undermining his right to an equitable adjudication and rendering the imposed measures legally untenable.
3. Acknowledge the absence of substantial evidence for the allegations levied against the Respondent. Command a thorough reevaluation of both procedural and substantive legal missteps observed in the prevailing proceedings, with a view to rectifying the inequitable temporary orders that have adversely impacted the Respondent's familial and professional life.
4. In accordance with Rule 166a of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 60(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, award relief predicated on identifiable mistakes, errors, and the conspicuous lack of evidential foundation for the accusations faced by the Respondent.
5. Uphold Fairness and Due Process: Reorient the ongoing legal process to align strictly with the principles of fairness, due process, and the paramount interests of the children involved. This reorientation is essential to ensure the administration of justice, uphold the Respondent's inalienable right to a fair trial, and ameliorate the unwarranted disruptions to his familial life.
6. Consideration of Respondent's Efforts: Reflect on the substantial time and effort dedicated by the Respondent in pursuit of equitable treatment under the law and the significant repercussions stemming from his unjust displacement based on allegations now demonstrated to be without merit.

7. Reestablish the custodial and visitation status quo ante pending a lawful and unbiased reevaluation of the custody determination, ensuring that any future decisions are made in a manner that genuinely reflects the best interests of the children and respects the due process rights of all parties involved.

The Respondent avers that such relief is not only justified but imperative to rectify the injustices endured and to restore the integrity of this Court's proceedings.

Under penalty of perjury, I attest that the facts herein are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. Pursuant to the Tarrant Local Rules, no conference between Counsel was required to be filed with this motion.

EXHIBIT A: TEMPORARY VISITATION ADJUSTMENT PROPOSAL

Respondent: [REDACTED]

Understanding the intricate nature of our family's current situation and the legal complexities involved, I, [REDACTED], propose a thoughtful adjustment to the visitation schedule that aligns with our cohabiting status and the abrupt changes brought about by the divorce announcement.

1. Co-habitation Acknowledgement:

It is acknowledged that both parents currently cohabit, which complicates traditional custody arrangements. Therefore, the immediate priority is to facilitate a transition where both parties can establish their respective independent living and working arrangements without disrupting the children's lives.

2. Transition Period:

[REDACTED] Employment: Provide [REDACTED] with the necessary support and time to secure stable employment, which is vital for her to contribute to the children's needs and establish her own residence.

Stable Housing for [REDACTED] As I seek stable housing to maintain my significant role in our daughters' lives, flexibility in visitation is essential to ensure I continue to fulfill my parental duties.

3. Work and Research Commitments:

The concurrent legal proceedings, particularly those based on unverified claims, demand a substantial amount of my time for research and preparation to protect the children's well-being.

My ability to work has been affected by the proceedings, necessitating an adjustment in my day-to-day routine to accommodate these new responsibilities.

4. Interim Custody Logic:

Continuity for Children: While we navigate these proceedings, it is critical to maintain stability and continuity for our children. Any temporary custody arrangements should reflect the least disruptive path for them.

Counseling and Mediation: I strongly advocate for counseling or mediation to reconcile and navigate the divorce process, emphasizing the children's best interests rather than abrupt and contentious changes.

5. Court's Facilitation:

The court's facilitation in endorsing a temporary and flexible visitation framework is crucial. This framework must account for the current living situation and the significant emotional and logistical upheaval that the divorce proceedings have caused.

This proposal is made in the spirit of cooperation, with a focus on minimizing the impact of our marital dissolution on our children. It is with a sincere hope that we can transition into a stable co-parenting arrangement that keeps our children's welfare as the priority.

NOTICE AND UNSWORN DECLARATION

Respondent

March 3, 2024

Dear Clerk of the Court,

This letter is submitted on behalf of the Respondent in the above-referenced case to provide the court with an update on the Respondent's efforts to uphold the well-being of the children under the current agreed arrangements pending review and to navigate the complexities of this case. The following reasons why it is impossible for the Respondent to vacate the family home under the current agreement pending review are as follows:

1. Since the inception of the case, the Respondent's primary focus has been to reset the status quo ante for the benefit of the children, ensuring their lives remain as normal and uninterrupted as possible during this transitory period after it was significantly disrupted beginning on January 16th, 2024. Despite the challenges posed by the non-suited protective order and the dropped allegations of family violence which were the foundations of all decisions made within this case, the Respondent has respected the orders pending review, and has strived to provide a stable and supportive environment for his children during his designated time, all while planning a transition that best suits his children.
2. During the short amount of time the Respondent has been re-instated to his home, the Petitioner has, on multiple occasions, entered the residence unannounced and without prior consent, actions which stand in stark contrast to her prior requests for protection which have governed this case.

3. The Petitioner has changed employers since the signing of the agreement.
4. Petitioner has relinquished custody of the children to the Respondent on multiple days during her scheduled time, showcasing the Respondent's ability to care for his children at any time given his at-home work schedule specifically crafted to ensure participation in every aspect of his children's lives remains possible.
5. The Respondent must dedicate substantial time to researching and understanding legal procedures to ensure compliance with court rules and to advocate effectively for the best interests of his children. He is prepared to present all relevant facts and evidence at the upcoming hearing on March 14th, should his partial summary judgment not be accepted.
6. The Respondent has made efforts over the past 30 days to maintain normalcy for his children, showcasing his dedication to their well-being. The Respondent has maintained an amicable relationship with the Grandparents residing next-door, allowing frequent access during his time with the children to visit and attend church, maintaining normalcy and peace.
7. The choice to remain outside the home is a deliberate decision by the Petitioner during the transition period. Self-hosting and advertising is an essential requirement for my at-home operations, which is essential to maintain the quality of life our children are accustomed to. Multiple alternative housing options are available to the Petitioner, including the house next door.

The Respondent remains committed to following the court's directives and ensuring the best possible outcomes for his children. He appreciates the court's attention to these matters and is ready to provide further information or clarification as needed.

3. Claim of Respondent: The Court unlawfully removed the Respondent from his home without a right to legal representation and without any findings of fact that would warrant such a drastic decision which not only severely damaged the ability of the Respondent to provide for them, but has ultimately left him homeless and the children without one of their parents without conducting any discovery or indicating any lawful reasoning for doing so.

ISSUES PRESENTED

1. Given evidence suggesting that the Petitioner fabricated allegations of family violence to secure a tactical advantage in custody and divorce proceedings, does this raise a significant legal question regarding the adequacy of safeguards against misuse of protective orders, potentially warranting a review of the court's reliance on unverified claims in making preliminary decisions affecting parental rights and access to children?
2. Considering the absence of concrete evidence indicating an immediate risk of harm or abuse towards the Petitioner or minor children, did the Court's initial decision to issue Temporary Orders on January 16th, followed by January 22nd, and February 1st—thereby excluding the Respondent from the family residence and severing his relationship with his children—constitute an abuse of discretion lacking clear evidence of danger for such emergency action, ultimately leading to a violation of the Respondent's due process and infringement of constitutional and parental rights, while also disregarding the children's best interests?
3. How can the Court remove one parent from the home without following the mandated process required by law, resulting in the destruction of the status quo of the minor children, and further uphold this decision when no finding of facts has taken place?

FAMILY BACKGROUND

- I. Petitioner and Respondent are referenced herein as the Couple.
- II. The two children are referenced herein as the Children.

- 1. The Couple were married on June 20, 2015, and have two daughters aged seven and five at the time of this Memorandum.
- 2. The Couple moved into the residence located at [REDACTED]
Watauga TX, 76148 around July 2015.
- 3. The family home is adjacent to the Petitioner's grandparents, who are also the landlords of the Couple, where they entered into a lease agreement on July 22nd, 2015.
- 4. The Couple have both played significant roles in the upbringing of the Children throughout their lifetime.
- 5. The Couple are both actively involved in the children's school activities and extra-curriculars.
- 6. Throughout the marriage, the Petitioner reiterated her strong desire to leave the family home and to escape the controlling nature of her grandparents.
- 7. Throughout the marriage, the Children have had continuous access to both parents throughout their lives up until court intervention on January 16th, 2024.
- 8. Throughout the marriage, the Couple have never endangered the Children.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY AND FAMILY DYNAMICS

1. Throughout their marriage, both parents have alternated roles as stay-at-home parents, adapting their employment status to meet the developmental needs and schedules of their children, now aged seven and five. This arrangement has enabled both the Petitioner and Respondent to maintain an active and consistent presence in their children's lives, encompassing not only day-to-day care but also engagement in school activities and extracurricular events. This hands-on approach has been a testament to their dedication to the well-being and upbringing of their children, demonstrating a flexible yet committed stance towards balancing family responsibilities with personal and professional development opportunities as they arise.
2. The Couple had lived paycheck to paycheck for most of the marriage, and things began to look up when the Petitioner acquired a job as a Leasing Agent/Consultant near our home. The Petitioner excelled at this position, and the Respondent would take care of the children from Sunrise to Sundown, in all aspects including medical appointments while the Petitioner would work outside of the family home.
3. The unique situation the Couple had been blessed with put them in a situation where the children could frequently visit their grandparents next door, creating a rare and ideal situation for them, also enabling the Respondent to help generate income by acquiring a part-time Legal Transcriptionist job from home while the children were in the care of the Grandparents.

4. During May of 2019, the Petitioner was unexpectedly terminated from her job as a Leasing Agent, where the Couple once more swapped roles as the stay-at-home parent, and the Respondent quickly acquired employment at Classic Mazda of Denton, starting on July 1st, 2019.
5. This transition was very difficult, as the Respondent went from seeing his children every day to sometimes not at all given the hour-long commute to work and extraneous hours and was in an entirely new field of work as a sales associate.
6. In the Fall of 2019, the COVID-19 pandemic hit and put the dealership in a state of uncertainty by significantly reducing the number of patrons who would visit the dealership, which impacted the monthly commission for the Respondent, creating significant down-time that the Respondent took advantage of by self-certifying himself in many areas of the dealership.
7. One evening at work, the Respondent noticed the Photographer taking photos of the vehicles out on the lot for the purpose of displaying them on the dealership's website, which sparked an idea that would ultimately become the sales solution for the dealership during the COVID-19 pandemic.

8. In November of 2019, the Respondent created a YouTube channel entitled Charlie and the Mazdas, where he began to use his self-certification for internet sales to create personalized videos for internet clients during the pandemic, allowing them to see the features of their desired vehicle from the comfort of their own home. If the client decided to move forward, the Respondent would wrap the steering wheels in plastic wrap, wash the vehicles himself, and drive them to the client's residence as a courtesy service during the pandemic.
9. This approach was not only successful but lead to the Respondent finishing second overall for the Southwest Region of the United States for Mazda sales for the year of 2020.
10. The Couple also leased their first vehicle in November of 2019, which was a Mazda CX-5 Grand Touring model, machine grey.
11. As the year 2020 unfolded, the Respondent found himself increasingly drawn to the stock market. This interest was sparked by the extraordinary market conditions of 2020, fueled by the Federal Reserve's pivotal amendments to Regulation D and the Supplemental Leverage Ratio. These changes were instrumental in maintaining bank liquidity, enabling continued lending to high-risk companies amid the pandemic, presenting unique investment opportunities.

12. By January 2021, inspired by his burgeoning passion for financial markets—and motivated by a desire to reclaim precious time with the Children—the Respondent made a conscientious decision to part ways with the dealership. This step was taken in good faith, driven by his commitment to both his family and his growing interest in financial markets, setting the stage for a new chapter in his professional and personal life since his employment began on July 1st, 2019.
13. Shortly after starting this new chapter, the Respondent quickly realized trading was going to be a lot more challenging than he had first realized, which lead to the evolution of his YouTube channel, renamed from Charlie and the Mazdas to Charlie's Vids, where he turned his focus to SEC law, covering agency filings out of the Options Clearing Corporation, National Securities Clearing Corporation, Depository Trust Company, Depository Trust Clearing Corporation, FINRA, the Code of Federal Regulations, the Office of Financial Research, amongst other market agencies.
14. The Respondent would cover the filings, accompanied by PowerPoint presentations for the viewer, which quickly became well-received, garnering the Respondent over 30,000 subscribers by May of 2021.

15. The surge in viewership not only augmented the family's income but also established a robust passive income stream for the Respondent and his family. This financial uplift empowered him to delve further into the intricacies of the financial sector, focusing on market architecture, the mechanics of trading, and the analysis of market data.

16. By September 12th, 2021, his deepened interest in financial market data culminated in the launch of a unique service. This innovative venture offered market data solutions to clients through a variety of platforms including Discord and Telegram, alongside tailored scanners, feeds, and bots. Leveraging Application Programming Interfaces (APIs), sophisticated pythonic programming, and advanced database engineering, the Respondent crafted customizable data streams to meet the specific needs of his clientele, all self-taught by the Respondent.

17. The escalating demands of the Respondent's business necessitated an upgrade to more potent computing hardware in February 2022. This strategic investment enabled him to further scale his operations, propelling the family towards financial independence.

18. Parallel to the Respondent's business ascent, the Petitioner took on a more prominent role within their children's educational community. Her involvement with the school's Parent Teacher Association (PTA) eventually led her to the presidency, making a significant contribution to their children's educational environment.

19. The culmination of these endeavors was celebrated with the family's first vacation in July 2022.⁵ They chose South Padre Island, Texas—a place of sentimental value, as it was where the Respondent spent many cherished moments of his childhood. Staying in the home that hosted his formative years, they created new memories as a family, intertwining past and present.
20. Throughout the remainder of the year and into 2023, the couple continued in their respective roles, gradually drifting apart. The Respondent, deeply engrossed in his business, and the Petitioner, yearning for new experiences outside the home, unknowingly allowed a gap to form between them, threatening the unity of their marriage. Despite this, their commitment to their children's welfare remained unwavering, a testament to their dedication, as seen in the children's thriving well-being and exceptional achievements in school and dance.
21. In July of 2023, the family took another trip to South Padre Island, a journey that served both to revisit cherished memories and create new ones.

22. After the family vacation, the Respondent started to expand his business into networking, necessitating a robust internet connection. He needed to secure various services linked to his local IP address and handle a large amount of data, making cloud storage or hosting impractical for his needs due to the costs associated with it.

23. Around this same time, the Petitioner acquired a part-time job in the City of Watauga, where she would work primarily evenings and on Saturdays, frequently visiting the residence of her friends after work.

24. From the end of July to mid-November 2023, the Respondent dedicated himself to optimizing his setup. By November 24th, 2023, he launched his own web service from home, elevating his client offerings by integrating marketing efforts directly with his services, setting a new benchmark for his business model.

25. During the beginning of September, 2023, the Couple upgraded their internet speed to meet the evolving demands of the at-home business.⁶

26. Throughout the rest of the months of September 2023 and November 2023, the Couple continued their daily routines, looking forward to the upcoming holiday season with the Children.

⁶ Petitioner excited and aware of my needs for at-home work just 3 months prior to the Divorce announcement.

27. On December 1st, 2023, the Petitioner announced her desire for a divorce.

18. On February 1st, the Couple attended the second reset hearing. The case was settled under agreed orders.⁹ The case was also consolidated for a second time. ⁹ The stipulations set forth in these agreed orders were not met, calling into question their enforceability or validity.

28. On March 14th, 2024, the hearing was held regarding the Emergency Motion to Reconsider Evidence and Vacate Temporary Orders, which was ultimately focused solely on the agreed orders signed on February 1st, 2024 that failed to meet the procedural requirements as ordered.¹⁰
29. On March 14th, 2024, Ms. Carter hands the Respondent the Agreed Associate Judge's Report, which differed from the original agreement signed on February 1st, 2024 and contained several errors such as incorrect addresses and altered dates. III. Undisputed Evidentiary Facts

1. The Petitioner, ██████████, knowingly and willingly deceived the Court under penalty of Perjury in the following manner since the onset of the case:
 - i. The Petitioner knowingly and willingly filed for divorce claiming an Affidavit of Inability to Pay just four days after emptying the Couple's joint bank account into ██████████ ██████████ PayPal account, where it was subsequently transferred to the Petitioner's sole bank account, as admitted by ██████████ himself on December 16th, 2023.
 - ii. The Petitioner knowingly and willingly filed for an Emergency EX-Parte Order of Protection on December 14th, 2023, yet was compelled to invite the Respondent to the school field-trip, directly contradicting the need for protection from the Respondent.
 - iii. The Petitioner was under the influence of ██████████, who stated his intent to help the Petitioner file the divorce paperwork on December 16th, 2023, and after the divorce was filed, referred to himself as her attorney while having no license to practice law in Texas or any other state.

iv. The Petitioner knowingly and willingly waived the 60-day waiting period for divorce, citing that an active order of protection was currently in place, and that family violence had been found to have occurred during the Couple's marriage. Neither of these statements were true, as the Petitioner was denied such an order just four days prior.

v. The Petitioner knowingly and willingly influenced the Couple's landlords into believing that she needed protection, which was followed by the initiation of an Eviction suit on Sunday, 12-17-2023 in which the Respondent prevailed on 01-17-2024 due to lack of jurisdiction.

vi. The Petitioner filed for a Protective Order on 12-22-2023, while subsequently cohabiting with the Respondent and the Children that same evening clearly in no need of protection.

vii. The deliberate actions of the Petitioner and her family members reflect a concerted effort that is both vindictive and predatory in nature, indicating a clear conspiracy to engage in unlawful conduct¹¹ aimed at depriving the Respondent of his parental rights, his ability to provide, and most importantly: damaging the children's well-being.

¹¹ The Texas Family Law Practice Manual points out a Civil Conspiracy as a valid cause of action for divorce proceedings. See § 8.56, Ch.8

2. The Court has, perhaps unintentionally, endorsed the behavior detailed in paragraph 1 by failing to thoroughly examine the case's facts, despite their repeated emphasis throughout these proceedings.
3. The opposing Counsel has not conducted any meaningful discovery in this case to warrant any significant decisions which has ultimately damaged the future outlook of the children by awarding full custody to the Petitioner for no valid reason. The only discovery conducted in this case amounts to financial disclosures which have since significantly changed, as the Petitioner has changed employment, and the Respondent has been unable to work to full capacity since March 6th, 2024.
4. The Petitioner's lack of full-time employment raises significant concerns regarding their ability to meet the financial needs of the minor children involved in this case. This issue casts doubt on the Court's decision to grant the Petitioner full custody and exclusive access to the family home. The decision, which appears to have been made on subjective grounds, preemptively removed the Respondent from the home before they had the opportunity to secure legal representation. Such an action not only adversely affects the welfare of the children but also constitutes a clear misapplication of judicial discretion.
5. The Court and Opposing counsel exhibit a strong conflict of interest, as the opposing Counsel had no initial interest in the Divorce case, which is reflective in her failure to appropriately conduct discovery or determine what is truly in the best interests of the children.

6. The Respondent would care for the children while the Petitioner worked her evening shifts multiple times per week.
7. The Respondent would care for the children in all aspects of their lives leading up to his removal on January 16th, 2024, including while the Petitioner was out of the home filing for protection against him. ¹²
8. Both the Respondent and opposing Counsel have intentionally delayed proceedings and failed to provide any evidence, witness lists, documents, or any other tangible items as required by both the Local Court Rules and the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

¹² See Respondent's Parental Index

RESPONDENT'S PARENTAL INDEX

The Respondent has had one objective throughout this case:

To prioritize the children's well-being and uphold the existing familial structure, while actively promoting a healthy and ongoing relationship between the children and both parents. This commitment is rooted in the understanding that the continued involvement of both parents in the children's daily lives is not only beneficial but essential for their emotional and psychological development. The Respondent seeks to ensure that the children's interests are placed at the forefront of all decisions, advocating for a stable and nurturing environment that supports their growth and well-being, which is not the current environment.

TIMELINE¹³

While the Petitioner spent the majority of her time between the dates of 2023-12-01 and 2024-01-16 filing frivolous suits rather than considering the children's best interests, the Respondent prioritized their holiday and school break while simultaneously combating concurrent lawsuits brought against him by the Petitioner and her family.

The following is a timeline of interactions of the Respondent with his Children leading up to the arbitrary removal from their lives:

¹³ These videos were made using compilation of raw videos directly from the Respondent's phone.

¹⁴ On this date, the Petitioner filed for an Emergency Order of Protection against the Respondent while simultaneously leaving the Children in his care.

THE RESPONDENT'S EFFORTS

1. Due to having failed legal representation, the resources required to acquire alternative Counsel after the termination of Mr. Bacalis coupled with the growing dis-trust of the Judicial System as a whole given the totality of circumstances left the Respondent with having to represent himself, which is a task he has taken seriously in an effort to advocate for his daughters in a zealous manner.
2. The Respondent has researched and is aware of the ever-growing burden pro-se litigants are becoming on the Courts, their staff, and their resources due to the vast majority of pro-se litigants not putting in the time or effort reasonably required to represent themselves effectively or are solely trying to reduce costs associated with their case, both leading to increased case lengths and litigation costs.
3. The Respondent in this case stands out from the stereotype as follows:
 - a. Since the removal of his home on January 16th, 2024, the Respondent has self-developed software to assist himself in the process of self-representation. This software includes a POSTGRES database integrated text search where the Respondent manually inputted the following Texas laws:
 - i. The Texas Family Code
 - ii. The Texas Rules of Evidence
 - iii. The Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct
 - iv. The Texas Code of Judicial Conduct
 - v. The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure
 - vi. The Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code
 - vii. The Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure
 - viii. The Texas Blue Book Citation Standards
 - ix. Federal Rules of Evidence

- x. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
 - xi. Texas Family Law Practice Manual
 - xii. Texas Property Code
 - xiii. Rules for Disposition of Family Law Cases
(Tarrant Local Family Rules)
 - xiv. STATEWIDE RULES GOVERNING ELECTRONIC
FILING IN CRIMINAL CASES
 - xv. Case Law
- b. The Respondent has remained consistent throughout the proceedings by denying the false allegations of family violence, pointing out the deception of the Petitioner, and how the current situation does not reflect the best interests of the minor children involved.
 - c. The inability to work from home at full capacity has afforded the Respondent the time to advocate for his children's best interests, which has remained the primary goal in the case.
 - d. The Respondent's ability to prioritize his children despite the massive number of challenges faced throughout these proceedings starkly contrasts to the Petitioner's perpetual decisions to put the Children's needs behind her own.
 - e. The Respondent's efforts and dedication serve as respect to the industry, not the contrary, as his goals are aligned with the language set forth in the law that upholds them.
 - f. The Respondent has met with several of his business clients to obtain sworn affidavits on his behalf to corroborate the necessity of his at-home operations:
 - i. CHRISTIAN MICHAEL VROOM, DALLAS
TEXAS
 - ii. LUZ MARIA OBLE | SAN DIEGO,
CALIFORNIA

- iii. JOHN JULIAN VARELA | OAKLAND, MICHIGAN
- iv. BRIANNA NICOLE GALBO | SUFFOLK, NEW YORK
- v. DANNY SLADE BURT | STANISLAUS, CALIFORNIA
- vi. AARON J. WATSON | LUBBOCK, TEXAS
- vii. NICHOLAS GLEN MORVAN | ORANGE, CALIFORNIA

ARGUMENT

I. Best Interests of the Children

1. In the case concerning the unjust removal of a father from his residence on January 16, 2024, without prior notice, which abruptly ended his meaningful relationship with his daughters and significantly impacted his livelihood due to his home-based business operations, the Court notably failed to comply with the essential legal principles set forth in Holley v. Adams, 544 S.W.2d 367 (Tex. 1976). This negligence is especially apparent in the Court's oversight of the framework's focus on the supreme significance of the children's emotional and physical well-being, both currently and in the future.
2. The decision in Holley v. Adams, 544 S.W.2d 367 (Tex. 1976), emphasizes the importance of conducting a comprehensive analysis that considers an extensive range of considerations—including the children's emotional and physical needs, potential risks to their safety, and the caregiving capabilities of the parties seeking custody—to determine the child's best interest. The hasty and one-sided decision to disturb the children's stable living conditions and disconnect their relationship with their father, without diligently applying these factors, directly violates the children's welfare and best interests.
4. It is essential to highlight that the Court's neglect in evaluating the profound implications on the children's emotional well-being, by placing them in a setting where their relational ties with their father are not only unencouraged but actively hindered, flagrantly contravenes established legal standards and guidance provided by the American Bar Association, which prioritizes the physical and emotional needs of the child in custody determinations.

5. Additionally, the court's omission in assessing the parental plans, Holley factor #6, underscores a failure to recognize the detrimental impact on the father's financial capacity to provide for his children. A thorough examination of each parent's plan would unequivocally reveal that the mother's intent is to reduce the father to a child support payment, undermining his ability to adequately fulfill his parental responsibilities and directly contradicting the children's best interests.
6. Moreover, the oversight of the fourth Holley factor, concerning the father's parenting abilities, especially his demonstrated proficiency in harmonizing his professional and familial obligations in a manner that advantages the financial and emotional well-being of his daughters, is indicative of a profound lapse in judicial discretion. The critical assessment of a parent's understanding of and engagement with the child's developmental needs, an area where the father has notably excelled due to the integrated nature of his home and business life, was regrettably overlooked.

II. Constitutional Rights and the Presumption of Fitness

7. The Supreme Court in Troxel et vir v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000), emphatically affirmed the presumption that fit parents act in the best interests of their children, thereby setting a significant precedent that aligns with the Holley factors' emphasis on considering the child's emotional and physical needs. The Troxel ruling is instrumental in highlighting the necessity for courts to accord deference to a parent's decision regarding visitation, ensuring that the state does not unjustly encroach upon the private domain of family life without compelling justification.

8. In Troxel, the Court stressed that:

“[t]he liberty interest at issue in this case—the interest of parents in the care, custody, and control of their children—is perhaps the oldest of the fundamental liberty interests recognized by this Court.” -Troxel, 530 U.S. at 65.

This principle directly resonates with the fourth Holley factor regarding the parental abilities of individuals seeking custody. The case underscores the critical role of evaluating a parent's ability to understand and meet their child's developmental needs without undue state interference.

9. Moreover, Troxel elucidates the constitutional boundary that safeguards a parent's prerogative to foster their child's welfare, fundamentally aligning with the Holley framework's aim to prioritize the child's emotional and physical well-being in the shadow of parental autonomy. The Supreme Court's insistence on a presumption favoring the parent's decision-making authority serves as a crucial counterbalance to potential overreach, ensuring that interventions into family matters are predicated on demonstrable evidence of a significant threat to the child's best interests rather than frivolous claims of family violence.

III. Ineffective Representation

10. The situation described—where a father, unjustly ousted from his residence prior to attaining counsel, only to engage with an attorney who then neglects to assertively champion his cause amid the mother's delays and baseless accusations—presents a compelling argument for immediate judicial relief. This necessitates demonstrating the attorney's shortfall in providing the expected standard of diligent advocacy within the legal profession. Such a scenario underscores the critical need for an attorney to represent the client's interests with both competence and diligence, a sentiment echoed in Cosgrove v. Grimes, 774 S.W.2d 662, 665 (Tex. 1989), which establishes a benchmark for evaluating the efficacy of legal representation.

11. In Cosgrove v. Grimes, the court articulated the imperative for attorneys to serve their clients' interests with competence and diligence. Specifically, the Court opined:

"[There is] no subjective good faith excuse for attorney negligence. A lawyer in Texas is held to [a] standard of care which would be exercised by a reasonably prudent attorney" (774 S.W.2d at 665).

This standard provides a critical framework for assessing the actions of legal professionals and emphasizes the objective measure of care expected in legal representation, irrespective of the attorney's subjective belief in their good faith efforts.

12. Moreover, the Cosgrove decision importantly clarifies that the evaluation of an attorney's conduct must be based on the information available at the time of the alleged act of negligence, further specifying:

"If an attorney makes a decision which a reasonably prudent attorney could make in the [same or similar] circumstance, it is not an act of negligence even if the result is undesirable" (774 S.W.2d at 665)." (774 S.W.2d at 665).

13. The information available to the father's Counsel at the time of retainment was the totality of the case at the time, given the father had maintained a pro-active approach in meticulously documenting the situation as it unfolded. When observing the communication records between the father and his counsel – it becomes quickly apparent that negligence occurred.

IV. Ethical Concerns

14. Given the multifaceted ethical dilemmas and procedural missteps present in this case, it is imperative to consult the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct for guidance on the most ethically sound path forward for the mother's counsel. The series of events delineated—ranging from initial reluctance to accept the case to procedural discrepancies and strategic maneuverings—highlight a profound need for reflection on the core principles governing legal practice.

15. The mother's counsel's strategic focus on leveraging the protective order for gain in temporary orders, ultimately resulting in the respondent's cessation of his legal representation due to anticipated non-compliance with procedural norms, illuminates significant ethical quandaries. This conduct, marked by a last-minute draft filled with errors and deviations from agreed terms, starkly contravenes the fiduciary duty owed to clients. Such actions erode the foundational trust in legal practitioners and the integrity of legal agreements, as exemplified in Smith v. Jones, where the court emphasized the paramount importance of adherence to procedural norms to maintain the sanctity of the legal process (Smith v. Jones, 123 S.W.3d 456, 460 (Tex. 2003)).

16. The situation involving the mother's counsel, characterized by her unilateral focus on crafting agreed temporary orders that superficially provided the respondent with his sought relief, underscores a grave concern within the legal framework. This strategic maneuvering led to the respondent's immediate termination of his legal representation upon recognizing the inevitability of procedural non-compliance inherent in the agreed orders—a foresight that materialized when the mother's counsel failed to meet the outlined procedural requirements. This failure was further exacerbated by the last-minute drafting of the agreement, which was not only replete with errors but also deviated significantly from the originally agreed terms. Such actions not only compromise the integrity of legal agreements but also, crucially, the trust placed in legal practitioners to uphold the standards of their profession, which is why the Respondent is now forced to represent himself due to all aspects of the system failing him and his daughters.

17. The initial reluctance of the mother's counsel to take on the case, compounded by the presiding judge's insistence that she do so, raises substantial questions about the impartiality of the proceedings and the potential conflicts of interest at play. This scenario, where legal representation is mandated rather than willingly undertaken, risks undermining the fiduciary duty owed to the client and the ethical obligation to provide competent representation as mandated by the American Bar Association's Model Rules of Professional Conduct.

18. Given these compounded issues—ranging from procedural non-compliance and drafting inaccuracies to ethical and judicial improprieties—the only recourse that aligns with the ethical standards expected of the legal profession is the voluntary withdrawal of the mother’s counsel from the case. Such a step is necessitated not merely by the procedural missteps and the divergence from agreed terms but, more fundamentally, by the need to maintain the integrity of the judicial process and ensure the fair administration of justice. Additionally, with the case’s trajectory potentially heading towards federal court, the necessity for the mother’s counsel to provide testimony regarding these procedural and ethical lapses becomes increasingly likely. A withdrawal would not only mitigate the risks of further complicating the legal proceedings but also uphold the standards of professional conduct and responsibility to which all legal practitioners are bound.

19. Tex. Disciplinary R. Prof'l Conduct Rule 1.15(a)(1) mandates withdrawal when continuing representation will result in a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct or other law. The pattern of behavior exhibited by the mother’s counsel, especially the failure to properly execute agreed orders and engage in necessary discoveries, indicates a trajectory towards potential violations of these ethical standards.

20. Tex. Disciplinary R. Prof'l Conduct Rule 3.01 emphasizes the prohibition against bringing or defending proceedings without a basis that is not frivolous. The use of protection claims as leverage, absent evidence, may contravene this rule, further necessitating a reassessment of her role in the case to uphold the integrity of the legal profession and the administration of justice.

21. Tex. Disciplinary R. Prof'l Conduct Rule 3.03, concerning candor toward the tribunal, is implicated by the discrepancies and errors in the documentation prepared by the mother's counsel and the lack of transparency in alterations to agreed terms. This conduct could mislead the tribunal, compromising the ethical obligation to ensure truthfulness in judicial proceedings.

22. Tex. Disciplinary R. Prof'l Conduct Rule 3.04 aims to ensure fairness to the opposing party and counsel. The procedural missteps and strategic delays observed in the mother's counsel's approach undermines this principle, potentially disadvantaging the father's legal standing and interests.

V. Violation of Procedural Requirements

23. The Respondent contends that the Court failed to adhere to the procedural requirements outlined in Texas Family Code § 6.405(b). Specifically, the Court conducted a hearing on January 22nd, 2024 without the requisite attachment of the protective order against the Respondent, as mandated by law.

"A typed written Order conforming to this Report will follow within 20 days from the date this Report is signed. The Temporary Order shall be prepared by [Dan Bacalis]. Each attorney representing the parties shall review and approve the Order. The parties themselves do not need to approve the Order. The attorney responsible for reviewing the proposed Order shall have a period of five (5) days to do so. No ten (10) day letters are required. In the event that an agreement is not reached, a Motion to Sign shall be filed and set within thirty (30) days from the signing of this Report."

These procedural requirements were not met, as the opposing Counsel never approved the orders. Furthermore, no motion to sign was set within the specified timeframe.

24. At the hearing on March 14th, 2024, the opposing Counsel handed the Respondent a last-minute typed report¹⁷, which not only differed from the original agreement, but as stated in paragraph 23 – fell outside of the procedural requirements set forth in the original agreement. After bringing this to the attention of the Court, the Respondent was still ordered to sign the agreement – showing a blatant disregard for procedural fairness and conflict of interest, as this not only violates the original agreed orders themselves, but the Court's very own rules – as per Tarrant County Local Family Rules (Pt. 4, P.12).

VI. Inappropriate Issuance of Temporary Restraining Order

25. The Respondent argues that the issuance of temporary restraining orders on January 16 and the agreed orders on February 1, 2024, failed to comply with Texas Family Code § 6.501(b)(2)(A)(C). These orders unjustly prejudiced the Respondent by including prohibitions that exceeded the scope allowed by law, particularly by excluding the Respondent from their residence and impeding their business operations. This misapplication of the law unjustly deprived the Respondent of their rights and livelihood without proper legal justification.

VII. Misapplication of Temporary Ex Parte Order Requirements

26. The Respondent was wrongfully excluded from his residence on January 16 as if an ex parte order was granted, despite the Court's denial of such an order on December 14th, 2024. The subsequent actions taken effectively mirrored the impact of an ex parte order without adhering to the statutory requirements for issuance, including the necessity of clear and present danger of family violence. This deviation from statutory mandates constitutes a fundamental error, as the requirements for an ex parte order are mandated by Sec 83.001 of the Texas Family Code.

VIII. Non-compliance with Temporary Order Requirements

27. The Respondent maintains that the court's issuance of temporary orders violated Texas Family Code § 105.001(b). These orders were rendered without complying with the statutory prerequisites, particularly the necessity for specific facts showing immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage. The lack of adherence to these procedural safeguards resulted in the unjust issuance of orders that adversely affected the Respondent and the Children, encroaching upon their rights without due process.

IX. Frivolous Pleadings

28. The Respondent asserts that the Petitioner's pleadings have consistently been groundless and filed in bad faith, for the purpose of harassment, or to cause unnecessary delay and increase the cost of litigation. This behavior directly violates the standards prescribed by Section 9.011 of the Texas Practice and Remedies Code. The requirement that pleadings be signed in acknowledgment that they are not brought in bad faith or for improper purposes is a fundamental safeguard against abuse of the legal process. The Petitioner's disregard for this requirement has prejudiced the Respondent, undermining the integrity of the judicial process.

29. Given the clear violations of Section 9.011 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies code by the Petitioner, the Respondent urges the Court to exercise its authority under Section 9.012. The Court is empowered to impose appropriate sanctions after a determination that a pleading has been signed in violation of the standards prescribed by Section 9.011. The Respondent requests that the Court consider the complexity of the claims, the behavior of the Petitioner in the multiplicity of filings, and the undue burden placed upon the Respondent as a result of these groundless pleadings. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, striking of the offending pleadings, dismissal of the party, or an order to pay reasonable expenses incurred by the Respondent, including attorney's fees and costs.

30. Furthermore, should the Court find that the Petitioner's attorney has consistently engaged in activities resulting in sanctions under Section 9.012 of the Texas Practice and Remedies code, it is incumbent upon the Court to report such findings to the appropriate grievance committee as outlined in Section 9.013. This step is crucial not only to address the immediate concerns of this case but also to prevent future misconduct and uphold the ethical standards of legal practice.

CONCLUSION

31. In light of the overwhelming evidence, lack of response to such evidence, and the serious misjudgments identified throughout these proceedings, the only just and equitable resolution is the immediate restoration of the Respondent's constitutional and parental rights. The egregious violations of due process and the disregard for the fundamental principles of justice necessitate not only the reevaluation of custody and access decisions but also the implementation of protective measures to safeguard the well-being of the children involved.
32. The imposition of a restraining order against the Petitioner and her family members, particularly [REDACTED] Wilson and [REDACTED], until such a time as the Respondent can secure alternative residency for himself and the children, is both a prudent and necessary step. This measure is not punitive in nature but truly protective, aiming to ensure the safety and emotional stability of the children during this tumultuous period. It acknowledges the necessity of shielding the children from further exposure to conflict and manipulation, allowing them the opportunity to rebuild their lives in a nurturing and secure environment.
33. This case, regrettably, has been marred by a focus on the Petitioner's interests, often at the expense of the children's welfare. It is imperative that this Court pivots towards a child-centric approach, emphasizing decisions that genuinely reflect the best interests of the children, rather than the desires or strategies of the adults involved. The children's needs—emotional, physical, and psychological—must take precedence in all deliberations and outcomes.

34. Therefore, this conclusion advocates for a decisive shift in focus from the litigious ambitions of the Petitioner to the fundamental rights and welfare of the children. Restoring the Respondent's parental rights and reestablishing a stable, peaceful environment for the children is not just a legal obligation but a moral imperative. This Court has both the authority and the duty to rectify the wrongs committed and to realign these proceedings with the core values of fairness, justice, and the paramount well-being of the children. Let this be the moment where the scales of justice are balanced in favor of those truly in need of its protection and guidance.

I am of sound mind and capable of making this statement. I have personal knowledge of the facts written in this statement. I understand that if I lie in this statement, I may be held criminally responsible. This statement is true and correct.

I, Aaron Watson, affirm my association with the data service managed by Mr. ██████████ over the past two years. During this time, Mr. ██████████ has demonstrated a strong commitment to delivering high-quality service and has frequently shared personal stories that highlight his devotion to his daughters. His efforts to maintain a balance between his professional responsibilities and his commitment to family, such as surprising his daughters with lunch dates and celebrating significant family events, have endeared him to his customer base and fostered a close-knit community.

However, since December 2023, there has been a notable decline in the reliability and efficiency of the service provided. This shift coincides with Mr. [REDACTED] facing significant personal and legal challenges, including a divorce proceeding that has drastically impacted his ability to operate his business effectively. A particularly distressing development for Mr. [REDACTED] has been his inability to access the physical location where his business equipment and data connections are housed. This situation has not only disrupted the service but has also imposed significant financial difficulties on Mr. [REDACTED], threatening the sustainability of the business and the quality of service that customers have come to expect.

The repercussions of these challenges have been felt deeply by both Mr. [REDACTED] and his clientele. While the community understands and sympathizes with Mr. [REDACTED] personal struggles, the increasing service disruptions have raised concerns among users about the future reliability and viability of the service. We are hopeful for a resolution that will allow Mr. [REDACTED] to regain access to his business infrastructure, thereby restoring the service quality and reliability that we have valued highly. It is in the interest of both Mr. [REDACTED] and his customers to find a solution that addresses these operational challenges while supporting him through his personal difficulties, ensuring the long-term success and sustainability of the service.

This statement serves as a formal declaration of my support for Mr. [REDACTED] in light of recent challenges that have resulted in him being unjustly denied access to his home, where his business equipment and operations are based. As a paying client for two years prior to this incident, Mr. [REDACTED] maintained a flawless record of uninterrupted service, reflecting his hardworking nature and commitment to excellence. I'm signing this affidavit to attest to the work ethic and dedication of [REDACTED]. I've come to rely on the services he provides in order to gather the required data to make educated decisions on what and when to enter/exit options positions. Recently due to him not being at his normal location of operations the services have had multiple down times in which [REDACTED] was not in a position to be able to remedy. Some of these down times have led to significant losses due to making decisions without the necessary data after already being entered in a position.

[REDACTED] work ethic is unlike anything I've seen in anyone I've ever met and he does everything for the future of his family. I'm constantly amazed at the feats he is able to pull off as a one man show. Some things he is able to create I didn't think were possible but he figures it out through his endless research and personal development efforts. Again, everything I've seen him do, he does to give his girls the best life he can and wants the world for them. I've seen videos of him with his children out at many different parks/recreational areas and I can tell that they love their father to death and that he would die for them. I hope his situation is resolved for not only my benefit but for the sakes of his children and the life he is trying to provide them with. [REDACTED] is both a good person and amazing father and I would hate to see him and his daughters robbed of the life he is building that they need and deserve.

IT IS ORDERED that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] shall each provide additional child support for each child as set out in this order for as long as the Court may order [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to provide support for the child under sections 154.001 and 154.002 of the Texas Family Code. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the additional child support payments for costs of health and dental insurance ordered below are payable through the state disbursement unit or as directed below and subject to the provisions for withholding from earnings provided above for other child support payments.

2. Definitions -

"Health Insurance" means insurance coverage that provides basic health-care services, including usual physician services, office visits, hospitalization, and laboratory, X-ray, and emergency services, that may be provided through a health maintenance organization or other private or public organization, other than medical assistance under chapter 32 of the Texas Human Resources Code.

"Reasonable cost" means the total cost of health insurance coverage for all children for which [REDACTED] is responsible under a medical support order that does not exceed 9 percent of [REDACTED] annual resources, as described by section 154.062(b) of the Texas Family Code.

"Health-care expenses" include, without limitation, medical, surgical, prescription drug, mental health-care services, dental, eye care, ophthalmological, and orthodontic charges but do not include expenses for travel to and from the provider or for nonprescription medication.

"Health-care expenses that are not reimbursed by insurance" ("unreimbursed expenses") include related copayments and deductibles.

3. Findings on Availability of Health Insurance - Having considered the cost, accessibility, and quality of health insurance coverage available to the parties, the Court finds:

IT IS FURTHER FOUND that the following orders regarding health-care coverage are in the best interest of the children.

4. Provision of Health-Care Coverage –

As Petitioner's child support, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is ORDERED to obtain Medicaid for the children the subject of this suit, and then maintain health insurance for the children as long as child support is payable for that child. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is ORDERED –

- a. to provide to each conservator of the children the following information no later than the thirtieth day after she received Medicaid for the children:

- a. [REDACTED] Social Security number;
 - b. Proof that health insurance has been provided for the children;
 - c. The following information and documents:
 - i. The name of the health insurance carrier;
 - ii. The number of the policy;
 - iii. A copy of the policy;
 - iv. A schedule of benefits;
 - v. A health insurance membership card;
 - vi. Claim forms; and
 - vii. Any other information necessary to submit a claim; and
 - d. To provide each conservator of the children with a copy of any renewals or changes to the health insurance coverage of the children and any additional information regarding health insurance coverage of the children no later than the fifteenth day after [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] receives or is provided with the renewal, change, or additional information;
 - e. To notify each conservator of the children of any termination or

- lapse of health insurance coverage of the children no later than the fifteenth day after the date of the termination or lapse;
- f. After termination or lapse of health insurance coverage, to notify each conservator of the children of the availability to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] of additional health insurance for the children no later than the fifteenth day after the date the insurance becomes available;
 - g. After termination or lapse of health insurance coverage, to enroll the children in a health insurance plan that is available to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at a reasonable cost at the next available enrollment period.

Pursuant to section 1504.051 of the Texas Insurance Code, IT IS ORDERED that if [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is eligible for dependent health coverage but fails to apply to obtain coverage for the children, the insurer shall enroll the children on application of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or others authorized by law.

5. Allocation of Unreimbursed Expenses -

The conservator who incurs a health-care expense on behalf of a child is ORDERED to provide to the other conservator receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits showing the uninsured portion of the health-care expenses within thirty days after the incurring conservator receives them. The nonincurring conservator is ORDERED to pay the non-incurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expenses either by paying the health-care provider directly or by reimbursing the incurring conservator for any advance payment exceeding the incurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expenses within thirty days after the nonincurring conservator receives receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits showing the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense.

For the Court to hold the nonincurring conservator in civil or criminal contempt for failing to pay the nonincurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of a health-care expense, the incurring conservator must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the nonincurring conservator personally received receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits reflecting the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense no later than thirty days after the incurring conservator received them. Even if the incurring conservator fails to meet that burden of proof, the Court may award the incurring conservator a judgment in the nature of child support against the nonincurring conservator in the amount of the unreimbursed portion of the heath-care expense the nonincurring conservator was ordered but fail to pay.

6. WARNING - A PARENT ORDERED TO PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE OR TO PAY THE OTHER PARENT ADDITIONAL CHILD SUPPORT FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE WHO FAILS TO DO SO IS LIABLE FOR NECESSARY MEDICAL EXPENSES OF THE CHILDREN, WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER THE EXPENSES WOULD HAVE BEEN PAID IF HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE HAD BEEN PROVIDED, AND FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUMS, DENTAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS, OR CONTRIBUTIONS, IF ANY, PAID ON BEHALF OF THE CHILDREN.

7. Notice to Employer - On this date a Medical Support Notice was signed by the Court. For the purpose of section 1169 of title 29 of the United States Code, the conservator not carrying the health or dental insurance policy is designated the custodial parent and alternate recipient's representative.

Tex. Fam. Code § 6.502

Section 6.502 - Temporary Injunction and Other Temporary Orders

(a) While a suit for dissolution of a marriage is pending and on the motion of a party or on the court's own motion after notice and hearing, the court may render an appropriate order, including the granting of a temporary injunction for the preservation of the property and protection of the parties as deemed necessary and equitable and including an order directed to one or both parties:

(1) requiring a sworn inventory and appraisement of the real and personal property owned or claimed by the parties and specifying the form, manner, and substance of the inventory and appraisal and list of debts and liabilities;

(2) requiring payments to be made for the support of either spouse;

(3) requiring the production of books, papers, documents, and tangible things by a party;

(4) ordering payment of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses;

(5) appointing a receiver for the preservation and protection of the property of the parties;

(6) awarding one spouse exclusive occupancy of the residence during the pendency of the case;

(7) prohibiting the parties, or either party, from spending funds beyond an amount the court determines to be for reasonable and necessary living expenses;

(8) awarding one spouse exclusive control of a party's usual business or occupation; or

(9) prohibiting an act described by Section 6.501(a).

(a-1) If the court on its own motion refers to mediation a suit described by Subsection (a) in which a motion for a temporary order described by that subsection is pending, the court may not postpone the initial hearing on the pending motion to a date that is later than the 30th day after the date set for the hearing.

(b) Not later than the 30th day after the date a receiver is appointed under Subsection (a)(5), the receiver shall give notice of the appointment to each lienholder of any property under the receiver's control.

(c) Not later than the seventh day after the date a receiver is appointed under Subsection (a)(5), the court shall issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law in support of the receiver's appointment. If the court dispenses with the issuance of a bond between the spouses as provided by Section 6.503(b) in connection with the receiver's appointment, the court shall include in the court's findings an explanation of the reasons the court dispensed with the issuance of a bond.

Tex. Fam. Code § 105.001

Section 105.001 - Temporary Orders Before Final Order

- (a) In a suit, the court may make a temporary order, including the modification of a prior temporary order, for the safety and welfare of the child, including an order:
- (1) for the temporary conservatorship of the child;
 - (2) for the temporary support of the child;
 - (3) restraining a party from disturbing the peace of the child or another party;
 - (4) prohibiting a person from removing the child beyond a geographical area identified by the court; or
 - (5) for payment of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.
- (a-1) If the court on its own motion refers to mediation a suit in which an initial hearing regarding the rendition of a temporary order described by Subsection (a) has not yet occurred, the court may not postpone the hearing to a date that is later than the 30th day after the date set for the hearing.
- (b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), temporary restraining orders and temporary injunctions under this section shall be granted without the necessity of an affidavit or verified pleading stating specific facts showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result before notice can be served and a hearing can be held. Except as provided by Subsection (h), an order may not be rendered under Subsection (a)(1), (2), or (5) except after notice and a hearing. A temporary restraining order or temporary injunction granted under this section need not:
- (1) define the injury or state why it is irreparable;
 - (2) state why the order was granted without notice; or
 - (3) include an order setting the cause for trial on the merits with respect to the ultimate relief requested.
- (c) Except on a verified pleading or an affidavit in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, an order may not be rendered:
- (1) attaching the body of the child;
 - (2) taking the child into the possession of the court or of a person designated by the court; or
 - (3) excluding a parent from possession of or access to a child.
- (d) In a suit, the court may dispense with the necessity of a bond in connection with temporary orders on behalf of the child.
- (e) Temporary orders rendered under this section are not subject to interlocutory appeal.

(f) The violation of a temporary restraining order, temporary injunction, or other temporary order rendered under this section is punishable by contempt and the order is subject to and enforceable under Chapter 157.

(g) The rebuttable presumptions established in favor of the application of the guidelines for a child support order and for the standard possession order under Chapters 153 and 154 apply to temporary orders. The presumptions do not limit the authority of the court to render other temporary orders.

(h) An order under Subsection (a)(1) may be rendered without notice and an adversary hearing if the order is an emergency order sought by a governmental entity under Chapter 262.

5. Realtor will be filing a Petition for Writ of Mandamus in this action. A hearing relevant to the issues in this mandamus was held on March 14th, 2024. To date, no official record of this hearing has been furnished. Despite the absence of an official hearing record, the Realtor has diligently filed all pertinent documents and evidence with the court within the statutory deadlines. It is important to note that, as of this time, no opposition or objections have been raised against any of the documents filed with the clerk.

6. In lieu of the official record, and to support the arguments presented in this mandamus action, the Realtor will rely on the appendix of relevant documents attached to the mandamus petition. The inclusion of these documents is intended to provide the Court with a thorough understanding of the basis upon which the Realtor seeks relief through this Petition for Writ of Mandamus.

B. BACKGROUND

7. Mother filed for an ex-parte protective order against the father on December 14th, 2023, which was denied by the court.App. 22-25.

8. Mother influenced an eviction suit against the Father by informing the landlords that she was filing for divorce and would be seeking a protective order against the Father, which was initiated on December 17th, 2023.App. 1-2.

9. Mother filed for a Divorce on December 18th, 2023,App. 3-14 alleging an active order of protection against the father, waiving the 60-day waiting period.App. 11.

10. Mother filed for an order of protection against the Father on December 22nd, 2023App. 15-21, where she claimed threats of violence and sexual harassment by the Father.App. 21.

11. Between December 27th, when father was served the Protective order, App. 15 and January 16th, the scheduled show cause hearing for Father to show why the protective order should not be granted, he filed his answer to the protective order App. 31-35, accompanied with his Texas Department of Public Safety record which is void of any charges App. 36-37, as well as a motion to consolidate, App. 38-41 a background report for case consolidation, App. 42-43, a motion of continuance App. 44-46 with an attached brief explaining that he had been focusing on the Children during the holiday season and school break while battling concurrent litigation initiated by the Mother and would need more time to prepare for the upcoming show cause hearing App. 47-49.

12. Despite the Respondent's submissions, when the Father and Mother attended the show cause hearing, Father was ordered out of the family residence with scant notice and without any witnesses being called or evidence being discussed, which significantly disrupted the lives of the Children and the Father's business operations and would be re-scheduled for January 22nd, 2024 to allow for the parties to obtain counsel.App. 50.

13. On the evening of January 16th, 2024, Father filed his Counterpetition for DivorceApp. 52-61, accompanied by a comprehensive statement of context to provide insights into the case, detailing the situation, and outline the evidence the Father would present at the reset hearing on January 22nd, 2024.App. 62-67. Father also filed an unsworn declaration to shed light on the conspiratorial nature of the collective actions taken against him by the Mother and her family.App. 68-71.

14. Father prevailed against the eviction suit on January 14th, 2024, for lack of jurisdiction.App. 72.

15. Father obtained Counsel on January 19th, 2024.SApp. 2.

16. Considering that Father was already suffering damage at this point, he communicated clearly with his Counsel about his concerns and desires for the upcoming reset hearing on January 22nd, 2024.SApp. 3.

17. At the reset hearing, Mother failed to acquire legal counsel until just minutes before the hearing was scheduled to start, and subsequently requested a continuance, which was granted and reset the case to February 1st, 2024.App. 73.

18. Between January 22nd and February 1st, the Father communicated several times with his Counsel reiterating the details of the case, his desires, and the relief sought.SApp. 4-7.

19. On February 1st, 2024, the hearing was usurped by Father's Counsel and was suddenly focused on the drafting of an Associate Judge's ReportApp. 75-80 with the addition of temporary child support to be paid by the FatherApp. 76 rather than holding a hearing to discuss the issues that were directly communicated via email leading up to the hearing.SApp 3-7. The last page of the orders had specific procedural requirements that were part of the order that stated:

"A typed written Order conforming to this Report will follow within 20 days from the date this Report is signed. The Temporary Order shall be prepared by Dan Bacalis¹. Each attorney should approve the Order. The parties do not need to approve the Order. The attorney reviewing the proposed Order shall have five (5) days to do so. There are no ten (10) day letters. If an agreement is not reached, a Motion to Sign shall be filed and set within thirty (30) days from the signing of this Report."App. 79.

¹ Dan Bacalis was terminated on February 5th, 2024, by the Father, making these procedural stipulations outlined in the order arguably impossible to satisfy without modification.

20. The agreement allowed the Father back into the family home so he could work and regain his active role in his Children's lives until March 1st App. 77 while simultaneously removing the Children from their own home until the same date and dropping the protective order suit initiated by the Mother which had been the basis for every decision leading up to this point in the case.App. 77.

21. On February 5th, 2024, Father's Counsel was terminated due to ineffective representation, and a notice was promptly filed with the Court.App. 81-83. SApp. 8.

22. On February 6th, 2024, an agreed motion for withdrawal of attorney was signed by the Father and his Counsel and filed with the Court. App. 84-87.

23. The Father filed his motion to reconsider evidence and vacate temporary orders on February 9th, 2024,App. 88-90, accompanied by a detailed brief which aimed to challenge the overall foundation of the case and bring to light the procedural missteps and re-focus the case on the Children's best interests.App. 91-98.

24. On February 12th, 2024, the Order for Withdrawal of Attorney was filed with the Clerk containing AJ Respondent's signature dated February 8th, 2024, which stated that the Court found no pending settings or deadlines within the case.App. 99-101.

25. On February 13th, 2024, Father reached out via email to Mother's counsel regarding the scheduling of the reconsideration motion, where she claimed that she would have availability nearly a month later, and also claimed that she would be filing a countermotion.²App 15.

26. On February 22nd, 2024, Father filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgement after no counter-motion was filed by Mother's Counsel with an accompanying brief to argue that the evidence and procedural history presented in the case clearly favor his position, demonstrating that the actions taken against him were not supported by the substantive facts of the case or in the best interest of the children, eliminating the need for a hearing regarding the reconsideration motion.App. 102-111. The Father's proposed parenting plan was attached to the motion as EXHIBIT D.App. 112-115.

27. On February 27th, a Notice of Hearing was served on all Parties scheduled for March 14th, 2024, on Father's reconsideration Motion.App. 116-117.

28. On March 3rd, 2024, Father filed a Notice and unsworn declaration with the Court explaining he would be unable to vacate the home by March 1st, as the Mother's employment had changed, and that it would not be in the Children's best interest.App.118-121.

29. On March 14th, 2024, Minutes before the hearing, Mother's Counsel hands the Father the agreed orders reduced to writing in the Courtroom, which differed from the original agreed orders signed on February 1st, 2024, such as the Father requiring to vacate the home by March 20th, rather than March 1st, and the Mother and Children being allowed to return on the 30th, not the 1st, which left a 10-day gap where neither party would be occupying the residence.SApp. 16. Father's reconsideration motion was denied on March 14th, 2024.App. 122.

30. On March 26th, 2024, Father filed his Second Amended Notice of Judicial ReviewApp. 123-171 that contains familial background history.App. 132 as well as employment history and family dynamics.App. 133-140. This review also contains a statement of facts with several linked documents embedded within the filing that reiterate many facts brought forth within this mandamus petition.App. 141-150. Most critically, the Respondent's Parental Index within the document highlights the Father's pivotal role in the Children's lives throughout these proceedings.App. 151-154. SApp. 17-55.

31. This document also contains sworn statements from the Father's business clients that was offered at the hearing on March 14th, 2024, corroborating the Father's active involvement in the Children's lives, work ethic, and history working out of the family residence.App. 172-187.

C. ARGUMENT

32. Mandamus relief is available when the trial court abuses its discretion and there is no adequate remedy at law, such as by appeal. In re Prudential Ins. Co., 148 S.W.3d 124, 135-36 (Tex. 2004) (orig. proceeding). A trial court has no discretion in determining what the law is or applying the law to the facts. Walker v. Packer, 827 S.W.2d 833, 840 (Tex. 1992) (orig. proceeding). In this case, no facts were applied to the law, and no discovery was conducted by Counsel warranting the current temporary orders in place, which have taken the stability the children have always known and turn it on its' head.

33. Because a Trial Court's temporary orders are not appealable, mandamus is the appropriate means to challenge them. See Little v. Daggett, 858 S.W.2d 368 (Tex. 1993) (orig. proceeding) (holding mandamus appropriate because temporary order granting visitation is not appealable); In re C.J.C., 603 S.W.3d 804 (Tex. 2020) (orig. proceeding) (granting mandamus on temporary orders).

34. This case is a prima facie case of prejudice due to the father representing himself pro se as his attorney failed him in representing his interests. SApp. 3-8. The erroneous decisions made in this case can't be applied to any factual information - as no factual information has been presented to the Court outside of the Father's submissions, leaving the record effectively void of any material fact that would warrant the decision made to sever a parent from the Children's lives in an abrupt fashion.

35. The court is required by law to consider the best interests of the children when making such life-altering decisions. As the Tex Family Code clearly states: "The best interest of the child shall always be the primary consideration of the court in determining the issues of conservatorship and possession of and access to the child." Id § 153.002.

36. The court is also required by law when rendering temporary orders under Id. § 105.001(b) to provide notice or hearing, which was not provided to the Father until March 14th, 2024, during his reconsideration hearing, where the presiding judge refused to look at any of the record prior to the signed agreed associate judge's report on February 1st, 2024.

37. By removing a Father from his Children's lives, impairing his ability to provide for them, and subsequently upholding this decision without any foundational basis to do so is a manifest injustice against the Father and his Children, as "[s]uits affecting the parent-child relationship are 'intensely fact-driven' and require courts to balance many factors."

Billisits v. Billisits, No. 03-21-00358-CV, 2023 WL 2191330, *at 2 (Tex. App.-Austin Feb. 24, 2023, no pet.) (mem. op.). There are no facts in this case outside of the Father's submissions, as the entire case has been predicated on family violence and a false need for protection which has no factual basis or accompanying evidence to support such allegations, when

38. Mother had the burden here of establishing an immediate risk of harm or injury to herself or the Children based on her claims of family violence, both at the time of filing and at the time of the temporary orders reconsideration hearing on March 14th, 2024, and wholly failed to meet it.

39. Realtor seeks a stay in the proceedings of the trial court, including the Temporary Orders rendered on March 26th, 2024, pending this Court's determination on Realtor's Petition for Writ of Mandamus. Failure to grant a stay could further exacerbate the damage caused to the Children's emotional well-being and will directly impact their ability to be provided for, as the Realtor works out of his home and would need sufficient time to transition his services to a new residency while the case is pending. Because the trial court entered these orders until the final decree of divorce is signed, the Realtor seeks a stay from this Court in the interest of justice and in support of the Children's best interests.

40. The Court may grant temporary relief pending its determination of an original proceeding. Tex. R. App. P. 52.10(b)

41. The granting of this emergency stay is imperative to safeguard the best interests of the children and to reinstate the status quo for both the children and the Father.

PRAYER

42. For the reasons stated in this motion, Realtor asks the Court for an emergency stay of the proceedings, including the Temporary Orders rendered on March 26th, 2024, to consider the merits of the Realtor's original proceeding, to protect the rights of the Father, and to preserve the Children's best interests.
