EMERGENCY NOTICE

---

Respectfully submitted by:

Charles Dustin Myers, Relator

TO THE HONORABLE BLAKE A. HAWTHORNE:

Pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.6, Relator Charles Dustin Myers respectfully submits this emergency notice and communication regarding the pending emergency motion for stay, filed on May 1, 2025. That motion specifically requested a decision by the close of business on May 16, 2025, due to the time-sensitive and irreparable nature of the harm at issue.

As of today's close of business, Relator will be foreclosed from any contact with his children for the foreseeable future, as the temporary housing arrangement that enabled visitation has expired. No ruling has issued, and no response has been filed by any adverse party—despite timely and proper service of the emergency motion.

This notice is respectfully provided as a formal communication under Rule 9.6, to ensure the Court is apprised of the imminent and ongoing irreparable harm, and the lack of opposition to the emergency relief sought.

Time lost between a parent and child can never be restored. Each passing day without relief—or any explanation for the lack thereof—deepens the injustice already before this Court. Relator respectfully pleads for the Court to exercise emergency consideration pursuant to Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure 10.3(a)(3) and 52.10(b) and respectfully clarifies that the motion was filed as a request for emergency relief under those rules.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Charles Dustin Myers
