

IN THE 322nd DISTRICT COURT OF TARRANT COUNTY
 STATE OF TEXAS

Morgan Michelle Myers,

Petitioner,

v.

Charles Dustin Myers,

Respondent

Cause No. 322-744263-23

NOTICE AND UNSWORN DECLARATION

March 3, 2024

Dear Clerk of the Court,

This letter is submitted on behalf of the Respondent in the above-referenced case to provide the court with an update on the Respondent's efforts to uphold the well-being of the children under the current agreed arrangements pending review and to navigate the complexities of this case. The following reasons why it is impossible for the Respondent to vacate the family home under the current agreement pending review are as follows:

1. Since the inception of the case, the Respondent's primary focus has been to reset the status quo ante for the benefit of the children, ensuring their lives remain as normal and uninterrupted as possible during this transitory period after it was significantly disrupted beginning on January 16th, 2024. Despite the challenges posed by the non-suited protective order and the dropped allegations of family violence which were the foundations of all decisions made within this case, the Respondent has respected the orders pending review, and has strived to provide a stable and supportive environment for his children during his designated time, all while planning a transition that best suits his children.
2. During the short amount of time the Respondent has been re-instated to his home, the Petitioner has, on multiple occasions, entered the residence unannounced and without prior consent, actions which stand in stark contrast to her prior requests for protection which have governed this case.

3. The Petitioner has changed employers since the signing of the agreement.
4. Petitioner has relinquished custody of the children to the Respondent on multiple days during her scheduled time, showcasing the Respondent's ability to care for his children at any time given his at-home work schedule specifically crafted to ensure participation in every aspect of his children's lives remains possible.
5. The Respondent must dedicate substantial time to researching and understanding legal procedures to ensure compliance with court rules and to advocate effectively for the best interests of his children. He is prepared to present all relevant facts and evidence at the upcoming hearing on March 14th, should his partial summary judgment not be accepted.
6. The Respondent has made efforts over the past 30 days to maintain normalcy for his children, showcasing his dedication to their well-being. The Respondent has maintained an amicable relationship with the Grandparents residing next-door, allowing frequent access during his time with the children to visit and attend church, maintaining normalcy and peace.
7. The choice to remain outside the home is a deliberate decision by the Petitioner during the transition period. Self-hosting and advertising is an essential requirement for my at-home operations, which is essential to maintain the quality of life our children are accustomed to. Multiple alternative housing options are available to the Petitioner, including the house next door.

The Respondent remains committed to following the court's directives and ensuring the best possible outcomes for his children. He appreciates the court's attention to these matters and is ready to provide further information or clarification as needed.
