To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Court,

I am writing to submit new and critical information pertinent to my petition for review in the above-referenced case. On June 2nd, 2024 at 3:51 P.M., I received a phone call from Margie Wilson, the grandmother of my wife and the landlord of our residence at 6641 Anne Court. Mrs. Wilson provided the following critical information:

1. Mrs. Wilson confirmed that my wife, Morgan Michelle Myers, has not been paying the rent for our residence for the past few months, despite being required to do so by the temporary court orders.
2. Mrs. Wilson expressed concerns about the health and wellbeing of my children, specifically Mara, as Morgan has not obtained the required insurance for them and has not taken them to see a doctor.
3. Mrs. Wilson mentioned that Morgan has been acting “not like herself”, raising concerns about her ability to provide proper care for our children.

Additionally, I must inform the court that I will be without a residence starting July 1st, 2024. I have been staying temporarily at my grandmother’s house, but she has sold the home, and they will close on July 1st, which is when I will be required to leave. My inability to provide for my children without a stable home further exacerbates the situation, making it critical for the court to reconsider the current orders.

I am unable to obtain a formal affidavit from Mrs. Wilson due to her request for confidentiality. However, I believe it is imperative that the court is made aware of these developments as they are directly relevant to the issues under review, particularly the enforcement and fairness of the family court orders.

I respectfully request that this new information be considered in the review of my case. If needed, I am willing to testify under oath regarding this conversation and provide any further information the court may require.

This situation is exactly what I had feared as outlined within the pleadings on record.

Despite our differences, the grandparents and I have always maintained an amicable relationship, and the call received displays our joint concern over the Children in this case.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter.

My name is Charles Dustin Myers, my date of birth is February 1, 1991, and my address is 6641 Anne Court, Watauga, Texas, Tarrant County. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed in Dallas County, State of Texas, on June 4, 2024.
